

Entertaining Angels of Light

Rebecca Brown Expose'

Copyright © 1993 by Vadim Holliday, Ph.D.

First printing July 15, 1993

2nd printing Jan. 2001

ISBN 1-884-785-02-6

Vadim Holliday, Ph.D.

P. O. Box 56527

Jacksonville, FL 32241

(904) 733-8318

<http://www.patholliday.com>.

All rights reserved. No part of this material protected by this copyright notice may be reproduced or unitized in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying, recording, or by any informational storage and retrieval system without written permission from the copyright owner. Printed in the United States of America.

contents

INTRODUCTION

Chapter One	Evil Shall Come
Chapter Two	Human Spirits
Chapter Three	Astral Projection, Rebecca Brown and Shirley McClaine
Chapter Four	Right and Wrong
Chapter Five	Rebecca Teaches Against---Gifts of the Holy Spirit
Chapter Six	A Ministers Character
Chapter Seven	Dr. Brown Loses Her Medical License
Chapter Eight	Rebecca Brown --- Mrs. Daniel Michael Yoder (Married)

INTRODUCTION

Rebecca Brown's books are in every Christian bookstore in this country and the world. Does she really know what she is doing doctrinally? Does she really set the captives free? This book discerns her work from her writings. Christians should know the truth because that is what sets us free. We deal with a subject that has been of ceaseless controversy in the Church because it exposes the powers of Satan as he works through human agents and the results of his influence over people lives. This book also exposes the true New Age nature and deception of Dr. Rebecca Brown Yoder writings who makes many bizarre claims.

On Dec. 10, 1989, she married Daniel Michael Yoder,

Satan uses human agents and knows biblical theologies. He cleverly covers his false doctrines with verses of Scripture so as to deceive the unconverted and the weak Christians of the Faith. He uses these human agents to disseminate his doctrines. Mary Baker Eddy, founder of Christian Science is a perfect example to show why Christians of our day must discern truth and error. It is not generally known that before Mrs. Eddy founded her false religion she was treated for severe pain by a process of Mesmerism, an early form of hypnotism. After that, she wrote 'Science And Health',¹ in which error blends with confusion.

In her later years, the crippling pain returned, and hypnosis was no longer of any help. She is reported to have died under the influence of morphia. The use of pain killing drugs effectively contradicts everything Mrs. Eddy has said and written about the illusion of pain during her lifetime. The deceptive spirit which she received through Mesmerism continues its work today through her writings." ²

If Mrs. Eddy's books had never been discerned by faithful Christians, her false religion would have just become another Christian denomination filled with religious confusion and delusion.

Today, we are being told not to discern contemporary writers' errors because it brings "disunity among the brethren." I submit to you that it's better to bring a little disunity than to subject Christians to doctrines of devils that will then be led away into the kingdom of darkness. I believe this book of exposure of Rebecca Brown Ministry is undergirded by the Word of God.

American is becoming more Pagan and heathen day by day. Paganism is replacing our Christian civilization in our beloved land. But, what is the characteristic of paganism! What are the Pagan marks? We can see spiritual darkness is a mark of paganism, (Eph. 4:18). Marks such as, Idol worship, ritualism—religious but also lost, ignorance concerning God and His Word are prevalent. We are experiencing a revival of Neo-paganism and it is the revival of the old gods and goddesses of pre-Christian polytheistic mythologies, mystery cults, and nature religions, such as Celtic, Greek, Egyptian, Roman, and Sumerian.

Prudence Jones and Caitlin Matthews write: “Pagans’ are people who follow the Old Religion, the native religious tradition of Europe which predated more abstract world religions such as Christianity . . . in a sense the new Pagans are neo-Pagans, since they derive their impetus from a spiritual re emergence and restatement of ancient Pagan principles.’

Neo-paganism also includes existing tribal religions, Native American religions, and shamanism. It also includes new religions inspired by avant-garde science fiction and fantasy works (e.g., the Church of All Worlds) as well as diverse occultic sources and traditions related to witchcraft covens are other neo-pagan groups.³

There has been an occult revival that began festering in 1966, when Aton LeVey began the first American Church of Satan. The Christian Church has chosen to ignore this vast movement. ⁴ The results being many young people who were raised in the Church have been led into strong supernatural powers that they do not know how to deal with. The Bible does not say, “ignore the devil and he will flee from you.” We are supposed to face him down with the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Witchcraft is the belief that supernatural powers can be brought under human control. Those who participate in witchcraft become like the entity they follow. Often people get involved and participate in the witchcraft through curiosity and in ignorance. There is NO such thing as INNOCENT participation, nor can you study these to refute them (you will be poisoned if you study their material).

The Bible makes it clear in both the Old and New Testaments that occult practices are abominations to the Lord. (Deut. 18:10-12), “There shall not be found among you any . . . that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, 11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. 12 For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD.”

Another scripture passage that points out just how seriously God views the occult and wizardry is (Acts 13:10), The Apostle Paul indicts Elymas the sorcerer with these words, “O full of all subtlety (deceit) and all mischief (maliciousness), thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?”

IDOLATRY

The things that people keep in their hearts in the place that God is to have an IDOL, whether it is an image of wood or stone or gold, or whether it is money or desire for fame or love of pleasure or some secret sin which we will not give up. If God does not really occupy the highest place in a heart, something else does and that something else is an idol.

The Bible has many terms for idolatry, and their usage represents the horror with which they filled the writers of the Bible [Adherents of Jewish faith maintain that the Torah is the literal and eternally binding word of G-d]. Thus idols are stigmatized "non-God" (Deut. 32:17, 21; Jer. 2:11, "things of naught" (Lev. 19:4) et passim, "vanity" (Deut. 32), "iniquity" (1 Sam. 15:23), "wind and confusion" (Isa. 41:29), "the dead" (Ps. 106:28), "carcasses" (Lev. 26:30; Jer. 16:18), "a lie" (Isa. 44:20), et passim, and similar epithets.

Pagan idols are described as made of gold, silver, wood, and stone. They are described as only the work of men's hands, unable to speak, see, hear, smell, eat, grasp, or feel, and powerless either to injure or to benefit.

Idolatry and witchcraft are signs of the end times. (Rev 9:20-21), “And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk: 21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.”

Idols were either designated in Hebrew by a term of general significance, or named according to their material or the manner in which they were made. They said to have been being placed upon pedestals, and fastened with chains of silver or nails of iron lest they should fall over or be carried off, (Isa. 40:19, 41:7; Jer. 10:14), and they were also clothed and colored, (Jer. 10:9; Ezek. 16:18).

At first the gods and their images were conceived of as identical; but in later times a distinction was drawn between the god and the image. Nevertheless it was customary to take away the gods of the vanquished, (Isa. 10:10-11, 36:19, 46:1; Jer. 48:7, 49:3; Hosea 10:5; Dan. 11:8), and a similar custom is frequently mentioned in the cuneiform texts. ⁵

WHAT IS WITCHCRAFT?

Witchcraft is seeking supernatural power from sources other than God. This is idolatry. It does not matter that you thought you were just playing or that you didn't believe its reality. These powers of darkness are spiritually alive and can control you when you open a door to them.

The Bible warns, "They consult a wooden idol and are answered by a stick of wood. A spirit of prostitution leads them astray; they are unfaithful to their God. Their deeds do not permit them to return to their God. A spirit of prostitution is in their heart; they do not acknowledge the Lord." (Hos. 4:12; 5:4).

Adam Clarke's Commentary interprets (Rom 1:30), [Inventors of evil things] Epheuretas kakoon. Those who have invented destructive customs, rites, fashions, etc.; such as the different religious ceremonies among the Greeks and Romans-the orgies of Bacchus, the mysteries of Ceres, the lupercalia, feasts of the Bona Dea, (dead) etc. Multitudes of which evil things, destructive and abominable ceremonies are to be found in every part of the pagan worship.⁶

BIBLE CONDEMNS WITCHCRAFT

Witchcraft is condemned in the Old Testament and the people of God are forbidden to use any form of it.

Richard Cavandish, author of The Black Arts: Witchcraft, mentions: "Sacred objects in use today are candles made of human fat, the head of a black cat fed on human flesh, a bat drowned the blood, horns of a goat that has copulated with a young girls and the skull of a parricide."⁷

We have seen widespread growth of witchcraft both for the purpose of foretelling the future and diagnosing disease. More and more people are resorting to fortune tellers, crystal ball gazers, palm readers and horoscopes, which are given much space in many newspapers and magazines. It is estimated that more than more than 100 million people around the world adhere to spiritism!

Twilah Fox, M.D., a Christian psychiatrist and now a deliverance minister, says, "I find the greatest treatment in all the world is to come to the Lord Jesus Christ and to come to know Him as a living being, to repent from our sins, to be born again, to learn the precepts of God and to obey them. Obedience to the Commandments and precepts of God to walk in them is imperative to be in mental and spiritual health."⁸

The reality of witchcraft is playing openly in the world today. A case that came to us in the eighties reveals how easy it is to be drawn into witchcraft. "Margaret: The Lady of The Lights" (not her real name) is a woman that I wrote about in my book, "Be Free" in the '70s. She "innocently" got involved in witchcraft out of fun and curiosity. This story shows that when one gets involved out of fun and curiosity, still reaps the results of the bondages of witchcraft.⁹

Margaret says: "I read a book. It was on witchcraft. I didn't know what I was doing. The book told me to look under my eyelids and I did for the next ten days. One day, I was sitting at my home. I had forgotten all about it. There were pictures on my coffee table of my family. Suddenly the pictures began to change before my eyes. The people in the pictures became . . . younger. This seemed wonderful."

"What is this?" I asked myself. It was fascinating to see. I didn't know what to think and I wanted to see more. Then, all of a sudden, a spirit appeared and said to me, 'I can do wonderful things for you. she, (the demonic spirit) was so nice to me. I wanted to please her."

The spirit said to me, "Go to your bedroom and sit in front of your mirror." I obeyed her and when I sat in front of the mirror, the whole mirror turned jet black! Then, as I sat on my bed facing the mirror, lights appeared on the left side," and one on the right side. As soon as that was finished, spirits in the thousands began to attack me. I was so frightened. I screamed as they tore at my clothes." Crying uncontrollably, I began crawling on the floor. I was all by myself and didn't know what was going on. "What's the matter?" I wailed. "Oh, my God!" My front door just opened by itself and falling down the steps, I found myself out on my front lawn. At that time, I lived in a very quiet area. Nobody was around, I found myself sitting on the front lawn and didn't even know why I was out there because I had no control over myself!"

Margaret went on to say, "I knew I had to pull myself together and go back in the house . . . When I went back inside, the spirits began to try to hypnotize me. The evil things taunted me and began throwing lights at me! Then, the entire house was filled with blinding, darting, lighten bolts and I could see them on the pictures . . . all over the walls, covered with spirits . . . I could now feel the pain running up my body and all through my body. I didn't know what was happening to me. The torment was unbearable and I felt like a prisoner. Where could I go for help? This insanity went on for seven days, I could not sleep and could see spirits, they were all over my legs."

When Dr. Holliday wrote about Margaret's testimony in the seventies, this was considered to be extremely bizarre stuff. Most Christians in America did not believe that witches and wizards were real. They believed they were just fairy tales from Disney World. Many Christians rejected me after writing the book, Be Free. Margaret, after deliverance, lived for Jesus and was a regular church attender until she died.¹⁰

The Word says: "But if I cast out devils by the spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you," (Matt. 12:28). Jesus said the Devil is "a liar and the father of lies." (Jn. 8:44) In dealing with the demonic, you cannot expect them to deal in truth. The Devil and his legion only seek to "steal, kill, and destroy." (Jn. 10:10) For this reason, (Deut. 18), labels the practices of witchcraft, sorcery, divination, and necromancy as detestable to the Lord. These practices brought judgment on the Canaanites and expelled them from the land. God did not want such teachings to infiltrate any culture. The church must not only present the danger of the occult, but the message of life and victory found in Jesus Christ over the principalities of darkness.

WITCHCRAFT IN THE CLOSET

The America Church has been protected from having knowledge concerning the effects of witchcraft for two centuries. The Church could not believe that these powers were real and if Christians believed it, it was something that only happened in the pagan countries--- not here!. Christian pastors had heard things about the mission fields and people in this country were sent thought psychological centers. Psychology cannot cure demon possession . . . only the power of the name of Jesus can. Therefore, according to the Word of God, Christians are really the only answers to demon possession!

Even so, they have mainly sat on the sidelines while the occult revolution thrived. Meanwhile the Devil is busy infiltrating many churches with his false prophets and prophets, false ministers and false doctrines. Many churches thought they could just sing and dance their way back to heaven! We have been taught “plastic (surgery) ”; “better homes and garden Christianity; “ prosperity”; “Disney World Christianity. Jesus has been put away to the sidelines while Satan’s agents are flourishing in many churches.

It's simply because of the Church's spiritual blindness that books such as Rebecca Brown" has been received. Rebecca Brown has great problems with her theology, but she does describe Satanism very well.

This book was not written to disparage any one's reputation but point unscriptural theologies and to alert Christians to the truth from a Scriptural viewpoint. Witchcraft and Satanism have been rising up very strongly since the sixties. Many Christian children have been drawn away from the Church and ensnared by the powers of darkness through powerful witchcraft television and movies, heavy metal rock stars and every pollution over their minds that you can think about. God wants to set the captives free by the power of Jesus Christ and His Word.

The Scriptures predict that there will be a great increase in demonic activity in the last days. Our age is characterized by an increasing flood of Satanic evil that is influencing society, the Church and the entire world. The work and doctrine of seducing spirits have enslaved multitudes of people, who find themselves suffering mental, psychic, spiritual, and demonic dominion.

FALLING AWAY

The Apostle Paul warns of the spread of heresy from the Christian faith. The word Apostasy conveys the particular idea of falling away, a withdrawal, a defection from the faith. Paul goes on to say in the scriptures, “Let no man deceive you by any means; for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition,” (I Thess. 2:3). The Bible shows in (II Thess. 2) the last days that a spirit of “strong delusion” will overtake the whole world. Have you noticed that “another Jesus, another Gospel,” is being preached everywhere?

Christians can no longer ignore what is happening in America. We must meet this spiritual crisis with Biblical principles to set the captives of Satan's kingdom free.

We must begin to war in the heavenlies and break the strongholds that are capturing millions in our country and the world.

We must get a burden for the lost! May God help us in these hours of darkness. "The Spirit speaketh expressly that in the latter times, some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils," (1 Tim. 4:1).

Charles Williams wrote in Witchcraft: "It is cold, it is hungry, it is violent, it is illusory. The warm blood and intercourse at the Sabbot do not satisfy it. It wants something more, and it wants souls."

I may add to this, and witchcraft wants Christian souls.

In the seventies, a young man from Jacksonville, left his wife and children to seek for a job in Miami. He saw a group of people with Bibles and he thought they were Christians. He began to attend their meetings only to discover that he had connected into a witchcraft group.

He eventually asked his Christian wife for a divorce so that he could marry a female witch. Christians in Jacksonville began to pray for his recovery and he eventually did return to his family. The group in Miami began working its spells and witches began to soul travel into the man's bedroom at night. The witch that he had wanted to leave his family for, would appear to tempt him to return to her. (A devil impersonating the witch).

Rebecca Brown would teach you that these experiences are that group of witches human spirits who were soul traveling or astral projecting. She believes that Christians have no power over these so-called "human spirits," (her definition -not mine). I also believe that Rebecca Brown's teachings are occult based and are taught in every witchcraft book that was ever written. If what she says is true, Jesus would have warned us because He would not have left us defenseless against these human powers.

There are many books that are Scripturally able to discern correctly. Witchcraft powers are real. However, Rebecca Brown's books do not have answers to this problem for the Church of Jesus Christ and could bring more confusion than constructive judgements.

I believe that Christians should read Rebecca Brown's books very cautiously and prayerfully.

Vadim Peter Medvedeff

June 19, 1988 Vadim Peter Medvedeff

The Witch and Christ's Grace

Curiosity killed the cat

Cauldron boils, herbs,

Green frog, a bat.

A weird trance.

A witch dance.

A shriek, a violent scream.

She joined the devil's team.

Gives her demonic a dream.

Finds herself no longer clean.

A woman riding on a broom.

Face of darkness full of gloom.

Cast a black shadow on the moon.

Chooses Satan as her groom.

Transported spiritually to a black dome.

A place she's never seen or known.

An enormous raging burning fire.

New Vows-becomes Satan's desire.

Satan appeared to take her hand.

Wedding a raiment-a golden band.

The moon looked like blood.

Witches bow, and praises flood.

Your soul filled with gross evil.

As she strives to serve the devil.

She surrendered everything to Satan.

Her life, her soul, joins his plan.

Your total surrender does not bring peace.
Power of darkness, destruction unleashed.
Escape Satan's clutches must be prepared.
Ties ore not easily broken once declared.

If Jesus is not your Savior,
You are lost.
Though you are dead in trespasses and sin,
He paid the cost.
The Bible says you are bound.
Jesus wore your sinner's crown.

See Jesus Christ in His sacrifice.
For you He suffered and paid the price.
A terrible struggle will take place.
As you seek to gaze into His awesome face.

Even for you, He will extend grace.
He'll cleanse your sin leaving no trace.
Singing Just As I Am, without one plea.
His power is able to make you free.

Give Jesus a chance to save your soul.
Discover the greatest story ever told.
A Woman bound by Satan's thousand ties.
The power of Christ, and sin dies.

Falling down into a burning ring of fire.
Making a pact with the Devil, not your desire.
Guilt of transgression that weighs you down.
Will disappear when Jesus you've found.

Chapter One

Evil Shall Come

"Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices," (2 Cor. 2:11).

WHY A BOOK ON REBECCA BROWN?

God's purpose is to perfect us, to make us more like Jesus. Our warfare is in the spiritual world, not a physical war. God wants us to exercise spiritual discernment in our churches and our lives. Rebecca Brown has targeted the Body of Christ with her books. She is not writing for the secular world. If her theology is erroneousness and cannot stand Scriptural scrutiny, the Christians should welcome those who will expose her books to protect our people from deceit.

I do not personally know Rebecca Brown. This book is based upon the information that she wrote in her books and testimonies presented to the Body of Christ as Christian doctrines. I have used her own words to uncover her erroneous beliefs. I believe her books present a very powerful Devil and a very weak Jesus. I also believe that her writings demonstrate more occult-witchcraft based religious doctrines than Christianity. The Apostle Paul warns, "Who has bewitched you?"

The Bible warns in (2 Cor. 2:11), "Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices." One of his devices is to use false testimonies and ministries to sway the Church away from the truth. Dr. Rebecca Brown's books minister more doubt than faith; more deception than truth; more sensationalism than fact; more Satan than Jesus; more New Age than Christianity. I challenge you to earnestly pray and seek the Holy Spirit concerning this topic.

The inspired Apostle Paul warned us: "Let no one deceive you" (2 Thess. 2:3). It is apparent that we are vulnerable to deception and we must not forget it. We must be on guard and protect ourselves against it. There is deception everywhere in the religious world. We must be alert. Paul was certainly a "heretic hunter" as Paul Crouch calls people that are trying to discern the writings and ministries of those who give the church improper teachings that would harm their souls.

The words deceit, deceitful, deceitfully, deceitfulness, and deceive, are used again and again in the Bible. These words are major themes and there are warnings everywhere in Scripture about being deceived. There are numerous warnings about the users and purveyors of deceit. The underlying Greek words for deceit cover everything from self-deceit to the practice of deceit by unprincipled religious teachers and con artists. So we are warned repeatedly and must be ready to protect ourselves, (2 Cor. 11:3-4, 13-14).

Deceit is defined as:

1. The act of representing as true what is known to be false; deceiving or lying.
2. A dishonest action or trick; fraud or lie. 3. the quality of being deceitful. ¹¹

British scholar W.E. Vine defines the Greek words apate and dolos that underlie the various English words for deceit:

“APATE . . . to cheat, deceive, beguile, that which gives a false impression, whether by appearance, statement or influence . . . In (Col. 2:8), ‘vain deceit’ suggests that deceit is void of anything profitable . . . DOLOS . . . primarily a bait, snare; hence, craft, deceit, guile.”¹²

I prayerfully ask the Father to give you discernment concerning the contents of this book. It is not intended to hurt anyone but its mission is to reveal the true nature of Dr. Brown’s books and their possible spiritual devastation upon those that read them. God bless you and according (Matt.18:18), I take authority and bind religious spirits that may try to control your mind while reading this material and loose the power of the Holy Spirit for wisdom and understanding, in the name of our Lord Jesus, to help you understand His Word and all truth.

IGNORANCE OF THE WORD

Closet Witches 1. and Closet Witches 2., these tapes are offered to the Body of Christ and are considered to be sensationalistic and farfetched by many Christian leaders. They can only be believed by “babes in Christ.” Knowledge of the word will tell you that these testimonies are being given by spiritual fruitcakes.

Jack Chick, whose Chick Publications Company has published two cassette tapes. Closet Witches 1. and Closet Witches 2. and two books. He Came To Set The Captives Free and Prepare Ye For War, considers anyone who disputes these tapes and books as a spiritual enemy.

In Closet Witches 2, Rebecca describes something called "counter petitioning God" in which she pleads with God not to let Satan do things to other Christians. She apparently gets flashes of insight into Satan's plans and then asks God not to let them be carried out. She seems to serve a very cold-blooded, mean god!

Rebecca also details some unorthodox views of the character of God the Father and Jesus Christ the Son. In Prepare Ye for War, Rebecca describes a conversation she supposedly had with Jesus: "Suddenly, that gentle voice of the Lord spoke to me again saying, 'Talk to me, child.' She tells the Lord Jesus, 'I can't talk to you, Lord, I don't feel any different from before, and all you do is get mad!'" Jesus supposedly tells Dr. Brown, "But I am not mad at you, I never have been. You see, I, Jesus, know how you feel because I have experienced weakness. Father has never experienced weakness, so He usually gets angry when His people are weak." ¹³ How absurd! This truly a stupid statement concerning Jesus. Jesus is God and He is never weak.

On the tape, Closet Witches 2, Chick says, "I think the listeners should watch carefully who in the Christian circles will attack Rebecca and Elaine (last name never given) to destroy their credibility and the message on this tape. More than likely the attackers just might turn out to be Satanists or witches pretending to be believers in Christ and it is going to be very, very interesting to watch." ¹⁴

It is easy to attack believers who do not agree and believe the credibility of Rebecca and Elaine as being valid and calling them names. However, as this book will cause to be seen, Rebecca Brown's writings are simply not sound in Christian Doctrine. We are supposed to judge the preaching that presents "Christian" teachings to our brothers and sisters in Christ. If these teachings do not line up with the Word of God, then we are called to disclose their errors for the protection of Christians. Whenever, someone claims to be Christian and chooses to write their beliefs to the Body of Christ, hopefully, the scholars in the Church will examine our work to see if it is good, sound doctrine for the Church, then, Scripturally expose it. Thankfully, there were men who bravely discerned the works of Jehovah Witnesses, Mormons, and a multitude of other false teachers. We know that demons disseminate false doctrines, (I Tim. 4:1; II Pet. 2:1; II Cor. 11:13-15; Rev. 19:20).

(2 Cor 11:4), "For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

Jesus challenged us to become discerning Christians that we could not be entrapped by "wolves in sheep clothing," (Matt. 7:15). Then in (Matt. 7:22-23), "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? 23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

There are those that are preaching another Jesus and another gospel. If their testimonies do not line up with the Word of God, junk it!

JOHN TODD ANOTHER CHICK WIZARD

Chick Publications once known primarily as a publisher of Gospel tracts and has gained notoriety as a publisher of sensational stories or tracts and books. Most notably are those of a supposedly former witch called John Todd, who claimed to possess knowledge of an occult, conspiratorial society called the Illuminati. The late John Todd was uncovered by many respected ministers as being a false prophet. Demons produce deception and bondage. They work through humans and we must know how too recognized the work of demons in this last hour.

I was a hostess of a local talk show during the seventies, when Todd came to a local independent Baptist church. He accused every major Charismatic ministry in the world as receiving money from the Illuminati. He was casting aspersions on every "Holy Spirit" filled ministries as “being of the Devil.” His entire ministry amounted to accusing holy men and women of being connected to witchcraft and bribery from the Illuminati.

Fortunately, Todd was exposed!

Now Chick Publications offers Rebecca Brown and a woman she calls (Elaine) last names is never mentioned on tapes or books to the Body of Christ. The interesting thing about Elaine is, she claims that she was a “former” bride of the devil. She becomes in these books Dr. Brown's authority concerning occult experiences. Rebecca always asks Elaine questions about witchcraft and then Brown writes Elaine's about them as though they were Christian doctrines.

Author's Note

There are three key words identifying witchcraft: manipulation, domination and intimidation. These words translate into “control.” Anytime someone asserts authority not given by God it is call witchcraft; it is rebellion against delegated authority. When one uses such illegitimate authority, one resorts to manipulating, dominating or intimidating in order to rule over other people!

ELAINE'S BIZARRE STORY

The so-called former witch, Elaine, gives her testimony of her entrance in the dark world of witchcraft. She claims that she was born with a cleft palate that required surgical repair. She says her family could not afford the cost of surgery. A nurse told her mother the work could be done in exchange for nothing more than a thimbleful of Elaine's blood. The blood would be for experimental use. Elaine claims the blood was used in a ceremony in which she was sold to Satan. She tells of the events that lead her to further involvement in witchcraft and Satanism.

ELAINE WEDS SATAN!

Elaine describes being introduced to or forced into Satanism after being inducted into Satan's service at a witchcraft camp. She made a blood pact with Satan by signing her name in blood and began to climb the ladder of power in Satanism. She recounts of becoming very powerful and contending for power in a national competition of witches, she surpassed all her colleagues and was named top witch.¹⁵

Elaine claims that "A crown of gold was placed upon my head and my fellow cult members members bowed down and gave homage to me ... I was treated like a queen ... I was given all the beautiful clothes to wear that I could possibly want. I was bathed, my hair fixed and I was waited on hand and foot by servants. There were parties and I always had a handsome escort who was also my body guard ... My escort always tasted all of my food before I ate to make sure that it wasn't poisoned." ¹⁶

"Elaine goes on to say, she married Satan himself, who donned a white tuxedo and rented a Presbyterian church for the ceremony. After saying their vows, the newlyweds were whisked off by limousine to the airport and Satan's luxurious private jet... on their way to their "haunted honeymoon" at a mansion in California, Satan sipped "very expensive wines and champagnes." ¹⁷

Elaine claims that she "became Satan's representative on an international level", going around the world to meet with heads of state and foreign dignitaries to negotiate the sale of arms.

Some of her activities as Satan's bride:

"I also made a number of trips to other countries. I have been to Mecca, Israel, Egypt, also the Vatican in Rome to meet with the Pope. All my trips were for the purpose of coordinating Satan's programs with satanists in other lands, as well as meeting with various government officials to discuss aid to their countries in the form of money. A few did not know that I was a satanist, but thought I was associated with a powerful wealthy organization of some kind. People asking for money don't ask too many questions. It was during this time that I met many of the well known Rock music stars. They all signed contracts with Satan in return for fame and fortune."¹⁸ She makes claim of being possessed by a demon named Mann-Chan" and was able to speak foreign languages fluently.¹⁹

Elaine links the Roman Catholic Pope into the worldwide occult network she says she supposedly headed. "The Pope knew very well who I was. We worked closely both with the Catholics -- especially the Jesuits -- and the high-ranking Masons."²⁰

PLOT TO KILL DR. BROWN

Elaine tells Jack Chick, Satan told her there was a "'young smartly doctor' at his 'special' hospital in a nearby city. This doctor was not only greatly interfering by 'preaching and praying everywhere,' but had also actually dared to interfere with a number of his top witches and their work at that institution." Elaine alleges "Satan ordered me to organize a nationwide effort among all the top witches for that doctor's destruction. He didn't care how we did it, but that doctor must be killed, and quickly."²¹

The young doctor turned out to be Rebecca Brown, an intern. Elaine immediately started working on her assignment. Still, Elaine says, "every time I did an incantation in the direction of that doctor, the demons came back unable to get through."²² (This is a very interesting statement because after Elaine's "conversion," according to Rebecca Brown's books, they were constantly under attack from both demons, Satanist, and witches. They could never get any victory over demons, witches and wizards. Dr. Brown never gives any testimony of victory concerning their demonic warfare!) Elaine says her difficulty in ruining Rebecca spiritually turned into a defeat for Satan. Through this supposed incident and other events, Elaine supposedly became a Christian.

Satan was angry. "The first thing that they (Mann Chan, and fellow demons) did was fly right off and tell Satan what I had done," Elaine tells Chick. "Then the fur started to fly. That night after I had returned home Satan came to talk to me, but things were strangely different. Usually Satan would come up to me and put his hands on my shoulders or hold me in his arms. This time he stood back away from me and shouted 'What the Hell do you think you are doing?' 'I'm leaving you,' I replied." ²³

After a heated discussion ensued, and Elaine claims that she ordered him to leave! Can you imagine that? She ordered Satan to leave? I have personally ministered to many former witchcraft people, and I can tell you, I've never seen one that thought that they could have order Satan to do anything! Elaine says "Satan came to me nearly twenty times over the next two weeks. Sometimes in a very charming mood, attempting to be a lover, but usually in a rage. He tried to persuade me to change my mind." ²⁴

Truly, if you believe that testimony, you'd believe that dogs can have cats' whiskers. Especially since she describes a human sacrifice and knows Satan's monstrous acts of terror and cold-blooded nature. "I watched in utter horror as a crown of huge long thorns was driven into the young man's head. The thorns going in so deep as to pierce into his skull . . . Finally, he was nailed to a wooden cross which was then picked up and placed in a hole in the ground, just in front of the middle of the platform. I will never forget the stench of the burned and tormented flesh, the screams of the victim, his writhing agony, his pleas for mercy . . . " ²⁵

And then, "Satan appeared in human form as usual, dressed completely in shining white. But his eyes glowed red as a flame and he threw his head back and gave a howl and a scream and a hideous laugh of victory as the high priest drove a long spike through the man's head, pinning it to the cross, killing him. The crowd went crazy, screaming and shouting and dancing in crazed ecstasy at the "victory." They loudly proclaimed all victory and power and honor to their father Satan. Satan vanished shortly after that to go on to the next Black Sabbath sacrifice. At his departure the meeting turned into a sex orgy. Human with human, and demon with human." ²⁶

The various people over the years that I've ministered to, tell of a well organized kingdom that is controled by terror and fear. No human being that is engulfed in Satanism would ever attempt to challenge Satan's power. If they come out, they have to be taught that Jesus is the superior power and how to use His name, prayer, blood. The deliverance minister usually has to cover them until they can stand in their new faith!

ELAINE'S MISSION

Elaine reported that Satan's next move was to make Elaine ill and put her in "that particular hospital," where she was placed under the care of Dr. Brown. Then the story's narration is picked up by Rebecca. She states God told her Elaine still had hundreds of demons and needed deliverance. She states "(God) told me that He wanted me to have Elaine move in with me immediately as she did not yet have faith enough to stand on her own. Her (earthly) husband had left her and remained with the Satanists." Since the hospital was under the control of Satanists, Brown alleges she and Elaine were targets of "the Brotherhood" (i.e., a group of people who are directly controlled by, and worship, Satan).²⁷

Nowhere does Dr. Brown question Elaine's testimony. After persuading Elaine to leave the "cult", she received a disturbing letter in the mail:

"The letter to me detailed my activities of the past two weeks perfectly, right down to what I had bought at the grocery store. They knew my address and phone number. They told me that if I ever spoke to or saw Elaine again that they would come and get me and sacrifice me. Elaine's letter told her that if she ever saw me, and that if she did not return and repent and serve Satan again, that they would get her and sacrifice her at the upcoming Black Sabbath. One line in each of our letters was very similar to the letter from the field commander of the king of Assyria to King Hezekiah. They said, 'You two are fools if you think your God can protect you from our Prince of Darkness!'"²⁸

Dr. Brown goes on to describe weeks and months of daily life threatening battles casting out demons from Elaine:

"The demons began to surface and speak through Elaine. I had never seen anything like it. Her eyes, voice, and whole face changed. I will never forget the first demon. Suddenly a guttural male voice said, 'I am Yaagogg, the demon of death, and you are all fools, you cannot win, we WILL KILL this foul traitor. She belongs to Satan and he will not permit her to live.'²⁹

From this testimony, Rebecca Brown weaves a powerful occult book that leads her and her readers into the depths of the world of Satan's darkness. The problem is, Brown, seems to present a very prominent Devil and a weak Jesus Christ throughout her books. Occult-witchcraft based philosophies are employed throughout Dr. Brown's books. She even describes her own experiences with the Prince of Darkness.

DR. BROWN AND THE PRINCE OF DARKNESS

Dr. Brown relates her own encounter with the evil one:

"Suddenly, a shining figure appeared and sat down across the table from me. He was in form as a man. As I sat staring at him in silent amazement the Holy Spirit forcibly revealed to me who he was! This was the LAST being I had ever expected to personally meet. This shining figure presenting himself in radiance as an 'angel of light' was actually the Prince of Darkness, The Prince of the Power of the Air, ruler over a vast kingdom of evil - Satan, himself!" ³⁰

Satan has a conversation with Rebecca asking her if she really dared to come against him and told her to count the cost. He said, "Woman you had better count the cost because I tell you, I will make your life an agony and an anguish that you never knew could even exist!"³¹

Dr. Brown has many interesting stories. Once she confronted a "werewolf".

"One evening at dusk I was driving from my office back to the hospital to see a patient who had taken a turn for the worse. I was alone in the car and was driving down a stretch of isolated country road where there were no houses or buildings within at least a one mile radius. Suddenly, about a block ahead of me a huge werewolf (sic) stepped out into the middle of the road. As I approached closer, he raised up and stood on his hind legs. I put my foot down hard on the accelerator intending to swerve around him but the car didn't respond. It glided to a stop, motor still running, despite all my prayers and attempts to make it go. I sat there staring in horror at the most incredibly ugly and fierce creature I had ever seen. I felt as if I was drowning in the pure evil power that radiated from him. He threw back his head and howled - a terrifying sound which I shall never forget.

Then he looked straight into my eyes and told me, 'You can't go anywhere - see, I have stopped your car and there's nothing you can do about it. Now I'm going to enjoy ripping your throat out and drinking your blood. You have been interfering with Satan too long; I am going to punish you. You cannot stand against my power."³²

Author's Note

Witchcraft is the use of a person employing Satanic power. It is Satan's way of imposing his will on your will and enforcing emotions, behaviors, or circumstances on people they would not otherwise want. Witchcraft cause to be endured, its power primarily through curses and spells. Many Christians get caught up in some prophetic or prophet to tell them "what God is saying about them." Really, if you want to know what God is saying about you, study His Word.

REBECCA AND ELAINE'S SO-CALLED PATHETIC DELIVERANCE MINISTRY

Rebecca goes on to say God wanted to make another covenant with her to enter into the "deliverance" ministry. Rebecca says she was told by God that this covenant was her call to "directly combat Satan and his demons" which would result in "loosing [sic] my career, my family, all my friends and nearly everything I held dear." She felt that if she did not enter into this covenant with God that she would lose her relationship with the Lord.³³

Rebecca says she accepted the commission. Joining her was Elaine, fresh from an eight-week exorcism of Mann-Chan and several hundred other demons. Together they joined God to fight Satan.

Rebecca goes to say, "Their first challenge was the Satanists at the "nearby hospital." Demons and witches -- the witches were doctors and nurses on the hospital staff -- were making patients sick. Their ministry, Rebecca says, blocked much of the witchcraft that was going on there. This defeat of Satan, coupled with the loss of his bride -- Elaine -- "caused Satan to lose face in his kingdom,"³⁴

Rebecca writes that Satan launched a counter-attack, threatening to make Rebecca and Elaine human sacrifices. However, the Lord's protection prevailed and Rebecca fulfilled His desire to "open a private solo practice so that I would have a broader range of patients. This was necessary so that He could bring to me the people I was to minister to, especially cult members." ³⁵

Rebecca says that at her new, small-town location, she "was privileged to bring close to a thousand people out of hard-core Satanism Every penny I made went to help these people with food, clothing, transportation out of the state, medical care and so on." ³⁶

Rebecca and Elaine go on to tell of encounters with Satan, his demons, Satanist and witches, curses and counter-curses, being shot at and having their house bombed. Another blow, Rebecca says, was that Satanist were "the instruments of my mother's death." ³⁷

One final blow sent them running for their lives, Rebecca says: "Satan struck one of his final blows to our ministry in that area. The Satanists swept in, and in one night, while Elaine and I were out of the house for a couple of hours, destroyed everything we had. They axed everything in my home, even killing our precious pets. They also destroyed my office and everything we had. Elaine and I escaped with our lives and the clothes on our backs, that is all. Satan's attack was so well planned that at the same time everyone turned against us We had no choice but to flee the state." ³⁸

HUMAN SPIRIT OR ASTRAL PROJECTION

Is it possible for a so-called "human spirit to astral project (soul travel) from one's body and enter another body that belongs to someone else and use that body?

Dr. Brown claims that "a human spirit" can possess a person's body, even superseding the will of the person! Before we start this expose' of Rebecca Browns weird ideas, I challenge you to send me scriptures confirming that another person's human spirit can invade another person's body and where it is found in the Bible. It is, for sure, witchcraft procession that is found in metaphysical books. Let me explain.

First: Astral projection, also known as soul travel is an occult teaching that a person can "will" make their spirit body come out of their fleshly body and their spirit body is able to go anywhere in the universe. The Bible does confirm witches and wizard can soul travel!

(Ezek. 13:20), “Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.”

(I Sam. 8:19, 20), “And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? For the Living to the dead? “To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.” ³⁹

This is the manner that Bishop Vagalas Kanco, The Witch Doctor and the Man, described astral projection or soul travel. He says, “On the spur of the moment, my father blasted forth with a strong whistle sound and instantly two very powerful demons appeared. All of a sudden, I felt my spirit releasing itself out of my body. One of the demons entered into my body and took control of it to keep my body alive while my spirit was not there. I felt as free as a bird. My father's spiritual body was moving to take my hand. I looked back to see our bodies, sitting on the rock, as we started walking toward the sea. Our bodies appeared to be alive! It was eye-deceiving, as the bodies were moving and gesturing to each other against the dusk of the night, as demonic spirits occupied each body.” ⁴⁰

However, if possible for a person to soul travel, as the occultist teach, then it would be highly questionable as Dr. Rebecca Brown teaches, that a person's spirit body could possess another person's body and take over their will without their consent and make them do things that they would not want to. (Devils have to have the consent of the person to possess them totally). Dr. Brown teaches that these “human spirits” can do anything they want too because they are “not subject to obedience to God!” If Dr. Brown's theories are true, surely, we would find some Scriptures to back up these practices in the Bible both Testaments of the Word. Yet, these are things that are described in Rebecca Brown's book, He Came To Set The Captives Free, And Prepare Ye For War, “as Christian Biblical Theology..

HERESY OF "SO-CALL HUMAN SPIRITS," TO CONTROL OTHERS

The Bible does not tell us to cast human spirits out of a person but it does give us the authority to cast out devils, Jesus nor the Apostles are not ever shown casting out "human spirits." "Now The Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience pierced with a hot iron; Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth."
(1 Tim. 4:1).

Chapter Two

Human Spirits

REBECCA BROWN'S GROTESQUE THEOLOGICAL SYSTEM

Rebecca Brown, M.D., wrote two books, "He Came To Set The Captives Free," and "Prepare Ye For War," Both books contain many gross scriptural errors. Her Books are being distributed and accepted, promoted by both Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians. The teaching in both books are totally in opposition to the belief systems of Spirit Filled Christians. These books could very well deceive Christians that do not have a firm foundation in the Word of God.

EXAMPLE: Dr. Brown writes in He Came to Set the Captives Free, on pages 114-117, about an encounter with "Sally," whom she says, "is a local witch." Dr. Brown, claims a "human spirit that was in fact "Sally, had astral projected and had possessed Elaine's body! "Sally, was now controlling Elaine's body and trying to kill her (Brown) with a butcher knife.

Dr. Brown goes on to write that, "later when Sally's "human spirit," had left Elaine's body. Brown was told by Elaine that she (Elaine) as a previous witch could simply "enter into another person's body and move and talk through them. Elaine explained to Brown that "she did not know how she did it but she did." sic.⁴¹

Frankly, I find this doctrine false and extremely bizarre and without biblical foundation. However, this is exactly the way that Dr. Brown disseminates her occult-based beliefs into the Body of Christ. The occult activity happens, then Brown gets Elaine to explain it. The Brown never shows any Scriptural documentation to show that it is sound doctrines.

Elaine went on to say, "... it was one of the first things she had learned to do as she grew in power. She said she could leave her body and go anywhere and do anything she wanted. In occultism, this is called "Astral-projection, or soul travel."⁴²

The conclusion of Elaine's occult account of being able to possess a person as a witch was interpreted by Dr. Brown from an occult viewpoint—not a biblical one AND FED TO CHRISTIANS AS A SCRIPTURAL FACT. Brown wrote that a witch could, at will, take their "human spirit," to possess and have control to enter another "human's body," taking over their will and forcing them to do evil things . . . even committing murder! ⁴³

This is simply preposterous!

ARE CHRISTIANS PART-TIME WITCHES?

Dr. Brown also concluded that Christians, if angry with one another, could also "project their human spirits" to attack their fellow Christian brothers or sisters. ⁴⁴ (This teaches that Christians through anger go into witchcraft as a fully trained witch!) If this could happen, there would be Biblical evidence, but there is none. God simply would not have left the Church ignorant of such power.

There is absolutely no scriptural basis for this heretical teaching. It is purely occult based. The most amazing thing about these books: Christian Ministers are reading and not seeing these gross errors and many are actually promoting her books as valid Christian doctrines. Sadly her books can be found in most Christian, including Pentecostal and Charismatic books stores! Ministers who are ignorant of the powers of witchcraft to deceive, blind and bewitch, as shown in the book of Galatians, simply believe her testimony without question!

Dr. Brown points to Christian writers as her basis for her new doctrines. She says, after reading Watchman Nee's book, "The Latent Power Of The Soul," and "Soul and Spirit," by Jesse Penn-Lewis and a few Scriptures taken out of context, that she finally understood the "strange power," Elaine had used in "addition" to demons as she learned about "Human spirits." She wrote that "many Warlocks and Witches in the area come into Elaine with their spirit bodies to try to kill both of us." sic (Remember, Elaine is supposed to be saved at this point) Yet the demons seem to have power to take her over at their will! Where is the power of Jesus in this kind of testimony? (The Author has read Jesse Penn-Lewis' book. Soul and Spirit, and there is nothing in that book that sanctions this type of heresy).

You must understand that Elaine had supposedly received Jesus Christ as Savior when these weird things were happening! You can not find these nutty things happening in the Bible!

Personally, I believe Elaine was being "controlled" by demons that were never successfully cast out. However, as a minister of deliverance of twenty years,

I have never seen a " human spirit" of any living person, witch or saint that could come into another person's body and take control of another's vessel!" If this activity were possible, why didn't Jesus speak of it? Why didn't the Apostles write about it?

HUMAN SPIRITS STRONGER THAN THE NAME OF JESUS?

Dr. Brown writes in her book "He Came To Set The Captives Free" speaks about a "difficulty," of making the "human spirits," accountable to the name of Jesus.⁴⁵

Personally, I believe that if these human spirits were more powerful than the name of Jesus, He would have warned us to be aware of these human spirits in His Word. He would not have made only Rebecca Brown responsible for this information to disseminate it to his Saints.

My Bible says: "Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the NAME THAT IS ABOVE EVERY NAME. THAT AT THE NAME OF JESUS every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth." (Phil. 2-9-10. Mk. 16:17), "And these signs shall follow them that believe: IN MY NAME shall they cast out devils."

Dr. Pat Holliday, was ministering in a church in Miami, Florida. A Satanist came to the Church to challenge the power of my ministry. When she arrived to preach, the Christians were very frightened and stirred up because before the service, the Satanist told them that he was there to challenge my power!

After preaching, she gave an altar call. He was the first one in the line. She asked him, "What can I do for you? Did you come to get saved?"

"No," he replied, "I came here to show you that Satan has more power than Jesus."

"Oh" I said, "You really believe that?"

"Yes, I do."

She pointed my finger at him and said, "The Word Of God says, "Every knee shall bow and every tongue shall confess, that Jesus Christ is Lord -1 command you in the name of Jesus Christ devil to bow your knee to the mighty name of Lord Jesus Christ."

The puny man fell to his knees. Those demons had to obey the Word of God! I wish you could have seen the absolute shock on his face. The Elijah type battle was over in a second. He soon jumped to his feet with a confused look on his face and raced fearfully out of the church! He discovered the power of the name of Jesus and His Word. The Saints were standing, cheering just like people who have just seen a touch-down at a football game!

I know the power of the name of Jesus. I've used it thousands of times to set the captives free. Don't try to teach me that there is something more powerful in the universe than His Wonderful Name, it just is not so! Jesus Christ is Lord!

We see this in Scripture that some Jews who went around driving out evil spirits tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who were demonized. They would say, "In the name of Jesus whom Paul preaches. I command you to come out. Seven sons of Sceva, and a Jewish chief priest, were doing this. The evil spirit answered them, "Jesus I know and Paul I know about, but who are you?" Then the man who had the evil spirit jumped on them and over-powered them all. He gave them such a beating that they ran out of the house naked and bleeding. When this became known to the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus, they were all seized with fear, and the NAME OF THE LORD JESUS WAS HELD IN HIGH HONOR!"

THE BLOOD OF JESUS HAS NEVER LOST ITS POWER!

Perhaps Dr. Brown was trying to operate in an area that she had not been prepared to minister . . . not trained by the Holy Spirit . . . in ignorance of the Word of God. Demons know what you believe. They also know how deep your faith runs. Many times when your faith runs out, they are there to minister to your mind doctrines of devils. Remember, the Holy Spirit and the Word of God will always agree!

Did Dr. Brown get her new doctrine of so-called human spirits from the Word of God?

No! A thousand times no!

Notice the occult doctrine that Rebecca Brown has fed to the Christian Church came directly from the lips of a former witch who has had no theological training but evidently knows occult darkness! EACH TIME, ELAINE IS CALLED UPON TO SIMPLY GIVE DR. BROWN AN OCCULT EXPERIENCE TO EXPLAIN AND THEN AN OCCULT DOCTRINE IS LEFT BY ELAINE TO FED TO THE BODY OF CHRIST! Dr. Brown then gets into agreement with Elaine's explanation and writes it as though it were Christian theology! I guess because Dr. Brown has a medical degree, she is believed by so many by deception and doctrines of demons.

"In whom the god of light hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them," (2 Cor 4:4). Every thought suggested to the mind by evil spirits, and accepted, is ground given to them. Our minds are the battleground through misunderstanding God's truth. We simply can not accept suggestions of occult experiences from the mouth of a former witch without the sure foundation of being biblically based!

How sad that only a few in the Body of Christ can see this erroneous belief. It is a time when every wind and doctrine is blowing and no one seems to be watching for truth from God's Word

Dr. Brown goes on to say: that demons would leave rather easily by simply rebuking them but her so-called "human spirits," could not be stopped in the same manner. Supposedly the "Holy Spirit," floods Dr. Brown's mind and brought to her remembrance Exodus Chapter 12 and said to her, "Since the death of Jesus, there are no more blood sacrifices and that, "the counterpart (counterfeit) of the blood today is oil."⁴⁶

Christian Friends, this is pure heresy!

The devil always moves to remove the truth of the blood of Jesus. IT HAS NEVER LOST ITS POWER! "Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place BY THE BLOOD OF JESUS." Hebrew 10:19.

No Sir, that the counterpart of the blood today is oil, so says Dr. Brown, is absolutely a lie! Dr. Brown, through such an absurd statement shows her ignorance of Christian theology.

Not only is the physical life in the blood but also the spiritual life. “Without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin.” (Heb 9:22-26), “And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. 23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: 25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others; 26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.”

(Heb 9:26), [For then must he often have suffered] In the counsel of God Christ was considered the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world, (Rev 13:8), so that all believers before his advent were equally interested in his sacrificial death with those who have lived since his coming. Humanly speaking, the virtue of the annual atonement could not last long, and must be repeated; Christ's sacrifice is ever the same; his life's blood is still considered as in the act of being continually poured out. (See Rev 5:6). ⁴⁷

The Blood of Christ offers a continual cleansing for the child of God. (I Jn. 1:7), “But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.” The Blood of Jesus Christ His Son frees and take away all sin and guilt . . . keeps us cleansed from sin in all its patterns and expressions."

THE BLOOD OF JESUS

I suggest to you, that it is a faulty translation of biblical doctrine which was given to Dr. Brown to disseminate to the Body of Christ, and most definitely NOT GIVEN TO HER BY THE HOLY SPIRIT! Remember the Holy Spirit and The Word always agree. This false doctrine was received by Dr. Brown through Clairvoyance and an impersonating spirit.

The teaching of the Blood of Jesus Christ in the Bible is as strong and effectual for our needs today as when His blood was first shed. There is simply no counterpart for the Blood of Jesus. Although oil is symbolic of the Holy Spirit, it certainly does not replace the power of the Blood of Our Lord Jesus!

Satan always strikes by trying to silence the name and the blood of Jesus because it is through Jesus' Blood that we find our salvation and overcoming power. "They overcame him (Satan) by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony." (Rev. 12:11).

Dr. Brown's books have in essence denied the power of the blood of Jesus with her strange occult doctrine of replacing it with "oil," which has no value.

I agree with the old song, "The Blood Has Never Lost Its Power!" The Blood of Christ was the visible sign of a life given in sacrifice that men might be released from death and reconciled to God. "Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holies by the blood of Jesus." (Hebr. 10:19).

Perhaps the real "difficulty" Dr. Brown was having making those "Human spirits" accountable to the name of Jesus was, that the demons were taking on the appearance of "Sally" and were powerful, stubborn ones and Dr. Brown did not have the power to cast them out!. These impersonating demons probably knew that Dr. Brown was inexperienced and weak in the faith of Jesus' name and could not make them move out. "The evil spirit answered them, "Jesus I know and Paul I know but who are you? (Acts 19:15).

Devils know those who has the faith, power and biblical knowledge to cast them out. They also know how to overcome those who try to use the name of Jesus and are not called or anointed to cast them out.

The deliverance ministry is only for believers who have faith and are being directed by the Holy Spirit. "The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with work of Satan displayed in all kinds of counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders, " (Hebr. 2:14).

DR. BROWN SAYS THAT CHRISTIANS PRACTICE WITCHCRAFT ALSO!

Another gross, serious error Dr. Brown taught: "If the Lord shows you that you personally are being afflicted by "human spirits" not only that of a Satanist, but even of a Fellow Christian who has hatred in his heart for you; you'll find it most helpful to be anointed with oil by a Christian brother or sister, praying and asking the Lord for special shielding not only from demonic powers, but also from human spirits as well."⁴⁸

This statement shows the confusion in which this woman finds herself.

Previously she has told us that so-called "Human spirits" are not subjected to the name of Jesus but now she tells us that we can ask God to shield someone from these so-called human spirits.

Dr. Brown's teachings concerning these impersonating devils can and probably does sow discord and suspicion among biblically ignorant brethren and sisters. First, this weird teaching does not divide the line between light and darkness. It says to the Christian who may be walking in carnal (flesh) instead of the Spirit that there is no difference between their power and those of any witch! "But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin," (1 Jn. 1:7).

Rebecca Brown's books bring confusion and wrong teaching to the Body of Christ, causing some to zero in on brother's and sisters, accusing them of sending "Human spirits," by astral-projecting from one's body to attack another Christian because of anger!

THE SERPENT AND THE RAINBOW

The author remembers once that some deliverance ministers novices cast a so called human spirit of "Vadim Holliday," out of a young boy that we were trying to minister Jesus Christ and His deliverance power. The young man's real problem was his involvement in voodoo practices. He had attended the horror-occult movie, "The Serpent and The Rainbow." which is about voodoo practices. He was not saved at the time. He told me that he came out of the movie feeling that "his soul had been captured by an unseen force, capped and placed in a jar."

Our ministry was trying to bring this teenage boy into a proper knowledge of the Lord and then into repentance, salvation and deliverance. I'm a known Christian leader in this area with a twenty year record of service to our Lord Jesus.

The people that cast out the "Vadim Holliday," spirit did not discern this boy's occult problem. After his strange deliverance, the young boy called Vadim Holliday on the telephone threatening her life! This young man ended up in the mental hospital in total confusion and delusion. Eventually he returned to doing voodoo blood sacrifices. The Christian novices seemed unconcerned for the young man's fate but were only interested in defending their names when the author tried to get them to a meeting with local ministers for correction. They would not attend the meeting!

No Christian friends, the Bible does not tell us to cast human spirits out a person, but it does give us the authority to cast out devils! This is not good fruit and certainly not inspired by the Holy Spirit. May our Lord put able ministers into the fields of harvest in our day that will study His Word and be led by His Divine Spirit, apart from seeking out sensational teachers and famous names to do their Bible studies for them.

WE HAVE NO POWER OVER HUMAN SPIRITS?

Dr. Brown continues to teach about so-called human spirits in her second book. Prepare Ye For War. She says, "Anoint your house. The Lord taught me this principle early in our ministry. Elaine and I had, for months, endured unrelenting torment from both demons and astral projected human spirits. Nightly, we would just fall asleep only to be jerked out of our beds and thrown to the floor by unseen spirits. Objects appeared and disappeared in my home. Furniture and other objects were thrown through the air by unseen forces and so on. Exhausted, one night, I cried out to the Lord in desperation, 'Father please, what can we do? I feel like my house is an open thoroughfare to any spirit of evil that wants to come through. You know how these spirits are tormenting us. I just can't stand it anymore'!" She gives no answer from the Lord. (The Biblical answer would be use the name of Jesus and the power of His Blood)! Believe me, if a Christian came under this type of serious demonic attack, the Holy Spirit would scripturally answer. The descriptions that she reveals here, is one that is seen in occult-witchcraft homes-NOT Christian! Jesus is present in my home and no devil has ever thrown me around and tormented like she describes. ⁴⁹

REBECCA'S SUPERNATURAL OIL

Notice that this is her second book, and she and Elaine are still living in much defeat concerning demonic powers. Yet, she is giving advice to ministers and pastors all over the country concerning how to defeat Satanism! If the blind leads the blind, they'll both fall into the ditch. Help us Lord Jesus!

She says, “at that point the Holy Spirit flooded into her mind the story of the Passover lamb in (Exo. Chapter 12). Then she heard the Holy Spirit speak, "Since the death of Jesus there are no more blood sacrifices. So. what would you say is the counterpart (counterfeit) of the blood today?" (SHE TOTALLY THROWS JESUS' BLOOD OUT!)

"The oil?" Dr. Brown asked.

“That is right.” Then (her) lord also reminded me of the Scripture in (Exo. chapter 40) where he had instructed 18 Moses to use the anointing oil. sic. She quotes (Exo. 40:9).

As she pondered these Scriptures, (her) Lord showed her that she must take oil and anoint her house sanctify it holy unto Him. So she took the oil (cooking oil) and placed some on the door posts and lintels of all the doors, the doors themselves, and on each of the windows, the fireplace, and every opening into her house. She asked her Lord to sanctify her home holy unto Himself, and to seal it with a shield of His precious blood. Then leaving the doors open she went back into the house and stood in the middle of it and asked the Lord to cleanse it and drive out all the human spirits. She then commanded all demons spirits in the name of Jesus Christ, to leave her home forever. She says the change was immediate and dramatic. However, demonic activity continues in her house when you read her other books!

She goes on to say, " My house was sealed and no demons or human spirits could get in from that point on." Note: I asked the Lord to drive the human spirits out of my house as we do not have the same authority over human spirits as we do over demonic spirits because she claims people are rebellious and do not subject themselves to God. Also throughout her books, “human spirits” continue to harass her and Elaine in her house!)

Again, I must point out this strange occult doctrine of human spirits are handled differently than demons because according to Dr. Brown, “they are not subject to humans nor the use of the name of Jesus.”

Then she says when asked about what kind of oil they used. Remember, the oil is only a symbol. There is nothing magical about the oil itself. Oil is oil. I have used motor oil on occasion when nothing else was available. The use of oil is a mark of obedience and the oil itself is only a symbol. The cleansing and sealing is done by the power Jesus Christ through His finished work on the cross of Calvary.

Believe me, if she got some relief there it was because of the mercy and power of Jesus Christ through His finished work on the cross of Calvary or the demon complied with her request in order to stay hidden --- not because of her moronic understanding of the use of oil.

Chapter Three

Rebecca Brown and Shirley McClaine, Astral Projection

SHOULD WE ACCEPT SHIRLEY McClaine'S TESTIMONY?

Dr. Brown again returns to her strange doctrine of astral projection on pages 250 through 261. She says: "The temporary separation of the spirit from the physical body is called in the occult world, astral projection. Within Roman Catholicism, it is called "bilocation." This phenomenon is defined in Catholic literature as follows: "BILOCATION, multiple and simultaneous presence of same substance or soul in two place distant from each other. Bilocations have been frequently reported in the lives of the saints."⁵⁰

Dr. Brown correctly identifies astral projection or bilocation as an occult manifestation. She then identifies a few contemporary Catholics who have this ability to bilocate.

Dr. Brown says Christians need to have a good understanding of the phenomenon so that we can help these people. She is learning continuously. Then she says that she is presenting to you concepts as the Lord supposedly taught them to her and as she has experienced them in the seven years she has worked with people coming out of deep occult bondage.⁵¹ Remember if Jesus is teaching you, His words will always agree with the Bible.

She says people ask her about the Scripture in James which says: "For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also," (Jam. 2:26). She states she is in complete agreement with this. When the spirit is finally completely severed from the body, the body does indeed die.

Then she goes on to teach the occult doctrine that she claims the Lord showed her and Elaine that the spirit can be temporarily separated from the physical body with death. She writes, "In light of the many reference in the Bible to the soul departing at death, I believe that at the time of death, the soul joins with the spirit forever and departs the physical body."⁵²

Dr. Brown's presentation is very cleverly disseminated into the Body of Christ as Christian doctrine but she does the most amazing thing. To make her point of her belief of astral projection, she begins to quote Shirley McClaine.

She writes: "The final separation does not occur until the link between the body and spirit is severed. This link is described by many people who experience astral projection as a "Silver Cord." As her authority for her statements, she points to the biggest New Ager in the world. "Ms. McClaine makes reference to this silver in her book, Out on a Limb, and demonstrated it very well as in the TV mini-series by the same name which was aired on January 18 and 19, 1987."⁵³

Dr. Brown then quotes Shirley McClaine's occult experience of astral projection - soul traveling, etc. As you know Shirley McClaine is a movie star that turned to the New Age and then became a guru to the spiritually gullible.⁵⁴

Dr. Brown admits that Shirley, by staring into the candle, had blanked out her mind, directly opening a doorway for the entrance of demons. She quotes Shirley's writing again in this manner ... She (Shirley) eloquently described this by saying, (my emphasis) Dr. Brown writes like a fan here! Can you imagine that pastors and church leaders have become so dull spiritually, that many of them did not even pick up on this blatant endorsement of an occultist?

Dr. Brown again continues to quote Shirley McClaine: "I physically felt a kind of a tunnel open in my mind." As she opened herself up to this demonic power, the link was forged between her conscious mind and spirit, thus enabling her to begin experiencing and controlling her spirit body. This is why all forms of meditation are so key in the Eastern religions."⁵⁵

Dr. Brown establishes the fact that Astral projection is purely an occult form and pulls her reasoning from a New Age writer and experiential participant, Shirley McClaine! Then she goes on to say: "Shirley's experience was real. (her emphasis) If you try to tell her or anyone else who has experienced astral projection that it is just an illusion or an hallucination, you will never make progress in sharing the gospel with them. They know (emphasis) what they experienced. It is because of their experience of the spirit world that they do not fear death, and are willing to accept the theory of reincarnation as fact ⁵⁶

Now check that out! She is actually teaching reincarnation as fact! The Bible says in (Heb. 9:27 Heb 9:27), "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment."

Dr. Brown finds a Scripture that seems to substantiated the new doctrine that she is trying to feed into the Body of Christ - the occult teaching on the silver cord. She quotes (Eccl. 12: 3-7), "In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, 4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low; 5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets: 6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern. 7 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it."

Then again she works to connect Scriptures to McClaine's teaching. Brown writes: "This passage clearly refers to death, I believe the loosening of the silver cord refers to the final breaking of the link of the spirit with the physical body at death. Look at what Shirley wrote regarding the breaking of this cord."

Quoting Shirley McClaine: "So is that what happens when you die; your soul just rises out of your body and floats and soars into the astral world," Shirley asked her guru, David?

"Sure, replied David, except you're only dead if your silver cord snaps. The cord snaps and breaks off when the body can no longer sustain the life force. It's really very simple." ⁵⁷

Dr. Brown cleverly again connects Shirley McClaine's false teaching with the Scriptures. She states: "Solomon was learned in the Eastern religions and practices. In fact, he fell in his later years into idol worship with his foreign wives. I have no doubt he probably experienced astral projections. He states in the book of Ecclesiastes that he had tried everything. I think the "wheel broken at the cistern" refers to the wheel of reincarnation. Eastern religions believe that this wheel of reincarnation can only be broken when the spirit gains unity with God, which they call Brahman in Hinduism.

What those involved in the occult and Eastern religions overlook, is Solomon's conclusions. "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: fear God, and keep his commandments. For this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil." (Eccl. 12:13).

She does quote the Scripture that tells us we do not reincarnate. "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment..." (Heb. 9:27). Then she goes on to explain her theory: "We must not forget, that when we enter into contact with the spirit world through demonic power and our own will rather than through the power of the Holy Spirit and His will, everything we see and experience will be demonically controlled. This is why witches don't see angels unless God specifically overrules and permits them to do so. Elaine only saw angels on three occasions during her seventeen years of serving Satan." ⁵⁸

Now friends, look at this confusion. She says that witches don't see angels but Elaine saw them three times while serving Satan. Did I miss something here?

Next, Dr. Brown wants to establish her human spirit teaching so she again uses Shirley McClaine's New Age teaching to do so. Brown writes: "Communication from human spirit to human spirit and from demon to human occurs in the this realm. Shirley alludes to it in her book."⁵⁹

Quoting Shirley:

"(David speaking) In the astral world you can go anywhere you feel like, meet all kinds of other souls too." ⁶⁰

COMMENTS FROM THE AUTHOR

The first thing true prophets of God will do, is preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ. They will lift up the name of Jesus not their own name, a denominational name or anything else. It will always be the Name of Jesus. We use the first part of (Mk. 16:17), as the authority to cast out demonic forces. It reads; "And these signs will follow them who believe: IN MY NAME THEY WILL CAST OUT DEMONS . . .”

This works because it is the Word of God and this is what we are told to use. Of course, you use it with no doubt. . . A true prophet knows Jesus said, "If I be lifted up, I will draw all men unto me" (Jn. 12:32). The true prophet's main objective is to bring souls to Christ. He knows it is most important to make Christians out of sinners (Jn. 3:36). Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life" (Jn. 14:6). Who will abide in Christ (Jn. 15:4?); who will walk after Christ (Lk. 9:23) who will be obedient to Christ (Jn. 14:31); who is indwelt by Christ (Gal. 2:20); who will witness unto Christ (Acts 1:8) and who continually look for Christ's return (Phil. 3:30). The true prophet knows the supreme glory of the Person of Christ as the Son of God and His superiority to angels (Heb. 1:5-4,13).

SIGNS AND WONDERS

There are many people preaching the Word today without power. Personally, I believe the gospel and the power of God go hand in hand . . . SIGNS AND WONDERS SHALL FOLLOW THEM THAT BELIEVE. The sins of the Church today are denying the power of God . . . Wrong Belief, Neutrality, Indifference, Hard Loveless Orthodoxy. The Scriptures affirm,” . . . in the last days perilous times shall come, for men shall, have a form of godliness but deny the power thereof: from such turn away" (II Tim. 3:1-5), God is simply not interested in religion but He is tremendously involved with the well being of people.

We wish to open the doors of your life to the Deeper Spiritual Life. This can only occur through the power of God. Billy Sunday wrote, "Let's quit 'fiddling' with religion and do something to bring the world to Christ." ⁶¹

THE POWER OF GOD is the answer to the Church's need in this day . . . Signs and wonders should follow them that believe. The Lord gave us an example of these signs when He said in (Mk. 16:17), "THEY SHALL CAST OUT DEVILS."

How many places can you go today and see devils cast out?

VERY FEW!

Dear Christian Brothers and Sisters, I, Vadim Holliday, came out of the occult in the seventies and I can truly tell you that every occult book that I ever, in the past, read (I don't read occult books anymore) taught this error of soul travel, astral projection and the silver cord! Flee from this nonsense. Don't read a mixture of the Christian faith with occult teachers documenting their points!

Chapter Three

A Time to War

"But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works," (2 Cor. 11:14, 15).

Dr. Brown lived with Elaine for several years. In fact she and Elaine were still roommates at the time of the writing of her books. She described their life back in Indiana as follows: "After I finished my residency in internal medicine and critical care, I opened a medical practice in a small town about 60 miles from the city in which Elaine was initiated into Satanism. Over the next three years life was intense. Elaine was ill continuously, often bedfast with many hospitalizations.

I made many contacts during that time and was privileged to bring close to a thousand people out of hard-core Satanism. We ran sort of an underground railroad. We lived out in the country so we hid people out in our barn, in a small apartment attached to our garage, and also in an upstairs apartment over my office. Every penny I made went to help these people with food, clothing, transportation out of the state, medical care and so on. I averaged 3-4 hours of sleep per night. Towards the end of that time the battle escalated, becoming more intense.⁶²

Hidden Messages to inflict fear upon Christians who read her books?

Dr. Brown's first Book, He Came To Set The Captives Free, concerns her ministry to a witch she called Elaine, (no last name ever given). The book opens with a scene of a Christian pastor who had been tortured by the local Satanist. His body was described as being partially skinned, multiple lacerations, stab wounds, lashes from whips; and most horrifying of all, holes in the palms of his hands with spikes driven through them. She says that "no one in the emergency room seemed to be alarmed but Dr. Brown.

“Hidden message: Pastors and the Church had better continue to ignore the rise of Satanism in America or this may well happen to them if they meddle into the world of demons.

(Remember, pastors on foreign mission fields have always fearlessly dealt with and prayed for people who were involved in witchcraft and Satanism. Our Lord has protected them and He can protect us!) openly, triumphing over them in it," (Col. 2:15).

Dr. Brown says she was raised in a "very tight religious (Christian) group. Outside she says that she was rejected, ridiculed and grew up very lonely ... And (was always very sick with an incurable neuromuscular disease.

Hidden Message: Christianity brings undesirable childhood of bondage by making one unpopular and sick.

She speaks to the pastor who had supposedly been tortured by Satanists. He tells her about a Satanist group that he had cast demons out of and lead many of them to the Lord. This, of course, according to Dr. Brown lead to his subsequent torture.

Hidden Message: Reinforcement of fear ... Leave them alone or else... don't try to save them nor lead them to Christ because this could happen to you!

Then Dr. Brown says that there were an excessive number of deaths in ICU. She tells a story about an elderly black lady she called Pearl. She claimed that Pearl was a "strong Christian," but was having ICU "psychosis." Pearl tells Dr. Brown there was no need for her to fight to stay alive, she could be easily be reincarnated into her next life! (Strong Christians do not believe in reincarnation! (Hebrews 9:28).

Dr. Brown goes on to say. Pearl called on the "higher power" (terminology used by people who do not believe in Jesus Christ) to escort Pearl into the next "beautiful life." (Christians do not believe in a "Higher power" - they believe in Jesus Christ).

Dr. Brown related that a nurse laid her hands on Pearl and spoke words a foreign sounding language (tongues). Pearl recognized the language to be incantation from her own heritage of voodoo and black magic and demons. (Previously Pearl was a "strong Christian").

Dr. Brown said she sat with Pearl while she describes a powerful unseen hand trying to squash her into the floor and an unseen force was trying to suck the life out of her.

Hidden Message: These powers or forces of darkness are more powerful than Pearl's "strong Christianity." The Spirit of God is unable to take care His Saints.

THE BROTHERHOOD

Elaine says she was recruited from something she calls "The Brotherhood," in a PENTECOSTAL CHURCH CAMP! Here she says is when she was introduced into all kinds of occultic Satanic Powers.

First: "The Brotherhood," is made up of men that's why it's called the Brotherhood - no women allowed!

Second: Notice where she supposedly gets her occult powers - The Pentecostal Church!

Hidden Message: Don't go to a Pentecostal Church because it is occult full with witchcraft and Satanism!

She is giving the impression that the Pentecostal Church is a part of the Illuminati!

May I remind the Church, these books are coming from the same publisher (Chick) that gave us a certain character in the seventies named John Todd. Todd who was exposed by Rev. David Lewis and others, as never truly being delivered from his witchcraft. Remember, he went about accusing every major Charismatic and Pentecostal ministry in the country as being connected to or taking money from the secret group of men that he called the "Illuminati." (A group of internationalist Satanists that supposedly rule the world.)

Dr. Brown said, "her purpose is not to expose them (witches and Satanists) but to control them and get them saved.⁶³ (Emphasis mine) " (Eph. 5:11), "Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them."

Any Christian book concerning these things of darkness should be written for exposure. Christians do not control anyone. We are supposed to witness to them and the Word of God says, then the Holy Spirit draws them.

"Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them. This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent," (Jn. 6:28,29).

DESTRUCTION OF CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

Dr. Brown's chapter on "Destruction of Christian Churches." Elaine gives an eight-point plan of attack that could be adapted to whatever denomination of church they (witches and Satanists) were sent to.

Secret Message: This plan should be obvious to all pastors. It is a road map for the infiltration and destruction of Christian churches. It is surprising that many Spirit filled pastors and ministers are supporting this book.

INFILTRATION OF CHURCHES

I believe that occultists are now infiltrating many churches. However, I also remember when Christian ministers could see when unbelievers were present. They could see by the anointing and the Spirit of God. Today, many churches have joined the spirit of the world to the degree, they can no longer see by the Spirit of God.

This first book is filled with error and should be avoided by people who are not grounded in Christian Doctrines and the Word of God. It is not a book that Christian ministers could recommend as a serious exposure of witchcraft and Satanism. Dr. Brown constantly asks questions and lets Elaine, a former witch, who says she was a bride of Satan, answer those questions. When you read the book, there is never any indication of any Christian based teaching for Elaine and therefore, she is not qualified to teach the body of Christ.

Yes, she may tell her testimony. However, a minister who has dealt in the area of her problems should have written about the scriptural meanings of these experiences. Dr. Brown may be licensed to practice medicine but is she able to properly discern the scriptures?

The principles of Christian spiritual warfare lay the foundation for our authority. Jesus received all power, and he has authorized our use of that power.

"And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, ALL POWER (AUTHORITY) IS GIVEN UNTO ME in heaven and earth," (Matt.28:18).

Dr. Brown's first book is very sensational and could be a stumbling block for scripturally ignorant Christians and the ones who do not know who Jesus Christ is and the power of his blood. It shows a powerful Satan and a weak Christ.

Rebecca Brown's books minister more doubt than faith; more deception than truth; more sensationalism than fact; more Satan than Jesus; more New Age than Christianity. I challenge you to earnestly pray and seek the Holy Spirit concerning this matter.

God bless you and I bind religious spirits that may try to control your mind while reading this material and loose the power of the Holy Spirit, in the name of our Lord Jesus, to help you understand His Word and all truth.

The readers of this expose' should know that I am not against the deliverance ministry. I personally have been in the ministry for twenty years and have cast thousands of demons out on the mission fields as well as in America. (1 Jn. 3:21) says, "Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God." It is my intention, to show you the truth, as I see it, concerning Dr. Brown's books. This material was not written to disparage anyone's ministry but it has been written to show the Body that we must have a discerning eye when we read books.

Rebecca Brown's books minister more doubt than faith; more deception than truth; more sensationalism than fact; more Satan than Jesus; more New Age than Christianity. I challenge you to earnestly pray and seek the Holy Spirit concerning this matter.

(Phil 4:7-8), "And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. 8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

Chapter Four

Right And Wrong

The Word of God says, "The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand, BECAUSE THEY ARE SPIRITUALLY DISCERNED," (1 Cor. 2:14).

Vessel Of Honor Or Dishonor?

Jesus warned His people that truly perilous times would come and Christians would have to be vigilant. Today, no one wants to be a watchman on the wall because they are highly criticized for breaking the "unity" or "touching God's anointed," by the "unity" brethren. Meantime, wolves in sheep's clothing are having a field day because if anyone is looking and seeing because they are afraid to tell.

(Heb. 5:14), tells us, "But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to DISCERN BOTH GOOD AND EVIL."

Since I wrote most of this expose' concerning Rebecca Brown in 1993, Charisma Magazine has been revealing backslidden ministers. Recently, they exposed some ministers who had fallen into adultery, homosexuality, teaching false doctrines. They did an article on Joyce Meyers, a popular evangelist in the Word of Faith Movement, together with Harrison House publishers, selling Meyers' books to Warner Faith Publishers. (Time Warner- AOL). This step will put these promoters of hard-core witchcraft right in the midst of the Charismatic Movement! Of course it will give Ms. Meyers a bigger audience to read her work. As Charisma Magazine wrote, "Her message is relevant to both Christians and seekers," said WF publisher Rolf Zettersten. We will work very closely with her to develop new books and to revisit her back list. Many of those titles deserve to be revised and repackaged because she is reaching a vast new audience today that is unfamiliar with her earlier works," he said. Since when is Time Warner -AOL interested in evangelizing the world for Jesus Christ rock bands.

The Bible says, (1 Cor 10:21), “Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.”

The Bible says, what fellowship does light and darkness have? Also, you can not sit at the table with the Devil and Jesus at the same time! Will anyone be brave enough to expose this evil that has opened the doors for purveyors of the most evil-hard core, witchcraft and pornography into the world? Time-Warner is the company that produces evil films such as Harry Potter movies to our children and Satanic Rock to our teens and every evil things you can think of. Since when did the Devil's people decide to promote so-called Christian ministries to help it to find “seekers?”

I remember in the eighties when Christian authors streamed out the Word Publishing House because they were simply bought by one of the major television networks. People like Catherine Marshall fled the publishing house to keep their works in God fearing, Christian publishers.

I took a lot of flack from many Christians for writing this expose' concerning Rebecca Brown. Some book store even took my books out while they flood their “Christian book stores with the Brown books!

How we have dropped in our standard. May God have mercy in this hour.

LOVE OF THE TRUTH

Victory in the Christian life is based on identification with the Word of God. (Jn. 8:32) says, "the truth shall make you free," (Rom. 10:8), “the Word of God is in our mouth and in our heart, that Faith is built. Faith destroys the enemy's hold in our life,” (Rom. 10:9,10), is the foundation of deliverance. The deliverance ministry is most definitely shown in the Word of God. One can find all the answers to demonology if the Word of God is studied and dependency on the Spirit of God is sought. (Ps 119:15-16), “I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways. 16 I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word,” (Ps 119:23), “Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy statutes. (Ps 119:97), “O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day. “ (Ps 119:148), “Mine eyes prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word.”

While there is a lack of knowledge concerning these deep things of God, especially in America, we need not seek after information from someone that does not understand the power of the Name of Jesus and His Word. My prayer is that you'll prayerfully seek God for the truth that is revealed in this book.

The Bible shows that Jesus Christ has already defeated the Devil! "Having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it," (Col. 2:15). Notice that this Scripture shows past tense!

Devils' are simply stepping over their authority if the torment and attack Christians as Dr. Brown mentions in her books!

CONTINUED SATANIC INVASIONS

Rebecca Brown's second book opens with supposedly a "Satanist Doctor" warning Dr. Brown of a possible threat against her life. "Tim's face and voice became icy and angry," she says. "So be it. Your death is on your own head! You can't say you weren't warned!" the Satanist Doctor warned.

Then she dwells on how defeated their lives have been since they are supposedly serving Jesus. I have noticed that Dr. Brown's writings always reflect the negatives of serving Jesus and the how she perceives a positive power of Satan. For instance. Dr. Brown writes quoting the supposedly Satanist doctor saying: "Look at Elaine, she has nothing! She's lost everything and she probably won't even live."⁶⁴

Then "Satanist doctor" tells her, "Well, I wouldn't say your Jesus has done such a great job for Elaine. Since she left Satan, not only has she lost everything, but she has been in the hospital for almost six months now, and you are about to get kicked out here if you keep fighting to keep her alive"⁶⁵ (Notice how she puts Jesus down as a weakling. The entire scenario always depends upon what she does, not what He has done or the power of His Word!)

Dr Brown wonders: "Why hadn't they reached a victory where Elaine was concerned? She had been hospitalized almost immediately after her final deliverance almost a year ago. And she was currently critically ill."

"Was she being foolish?" Dr. Brown asked herself. ⁶⁶

I, Personally, have seen many Born-again Christians coming out of the occult to serve Jesus Christ who are successful and their life styles never changed financially. Also, they do not live under so much turmoil as Dr. Brown and Elaine seem to face daily.

In (Heb. 2:8), "Thou hast put all thing in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him." The principles of Christian warfare lay the foundation for our authority. Jesus received all power, and he has authorized our use of that power. As we apply the principles of spiritual warfare, we are becoming more like Christ. We are then able to receive more authority.

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, Because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor. He has sent Me to Heal The Brokenhearted, to preach Deliverance to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed," (Lk. 4:18).

Notice, we are called to be servants but we are servants with the overcoming power of Jesus Christ. I have personally ministered to demonized people for many years. Never! Never, have I seen the type of defeat that I see in Dr. Brown's books. Frankly, according to Luke 4:18, Jesus has anointed us to preach deliverance to the captives ".... and to set at liberty those who are oppressed." The Holy Spirit is blowing a fresh wind of change and He is truly raising ministers who believe the Word of God and experience the power of God for the purpose delivering the captives. However, reading Dr. Brown's books persuades one to believe the powers of darkness have much, much more power than Jesus Christ and His servants.

Wrong!

Jesus, the Word of God and His servants are more powerful.

DID A HOLY GOD SEND AN ANGEL TO KILL ELAINE? OR WAS IT DEMONS?

According to Dr. Brown books, they were constantly harassed by demons, AND "human spirits," and physical people, constantly attacked from every direction, and Elaine was constantly sick . . . "

Dr. Brown then wants us to believe that the mediation powers of Jesus Christ are void and nil. She even takes up the cloak of Elaine's salvation, look at what she says: "an angel was sent by God to kill Elaine after she had become a Christian," Rebecca relates her encounter with "a shining white-robed figure . . . with a drawn sword in his hand. He was tall, very tall. His head nearly touched the ceiling of the room. He radiated power and his countenance was fierce. His skin was bronzed and the sword in his hand shown with a pure white light." ⁶⁷

Imagine this. God sent an angel to KILL ELAINE! What god did this? Surely, it is not the God of our Lord Jesus Christ. I believe this new doctrine that Dr. Brown is trying to feed the Body of Christ, strikes right to the heart of why Jesus Christ came. If God could have used Dr. Brown to pay the price for Elaine's stubborn, REBELLIOUS NATURE, why did He send His begotten Son, Jesus?

Dr. Brown describes Elaine's rebellious nature calling her "stubborn" and shows Elaine as wanting to use her old powers to protect them from threatening Satanist.

"Elaine, you can't disobey the Lord."

"Why not," Elaine replies. When Satan commanded something, if I didn't want to do, then I just didn't do it. God is insulting me. Why should I ask Him to protect us when I can fight just as well? ⁶⁸

(Dear Christian brothers and sisters. This is NOT a statement from someone who claims to be saved! This is ludicrous! (Over the years, this Author has ministered to both former -Satanists former witches. They always say, that if they disobeyed Satan, they would be attacked by demons so strongly that they dared never to disobey again.) NOT ONE EVER SAID THAT GOD THREATENED TO KILL THEM IF THEY SINNED AFTER BEING DELIVERED AND SAVED!)

Dr. Brown says, that God had sent an angel to KILL SOMEONE would not make a covenant with Him to protect her from being killed. She continues to write her trashing of the redeeming power of Jesus. "An Angel supposedly appeared to kill Elaine who was so rebellious disobedient, she had angered THEIR (Dr. Brown and Elaine's) god." ⁶⁹

(I thought repenting and accepting Jesus as Lord and Savior was the Covenant that every Christian walks under. There simply is no other covenant but the one that Jesus Christ paid for with His life. Also, Christian judgment will take place at the judgement seat of Jesus. (2 Cor. 5:10), For we (Christians) must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

Dr. Brown gets extremely dramatic in her psychotic strange beliefs which again and her knowledge of the biblical Christianity as being flawed. She writes that she "threw herself prone on her face on the floor pleaded with "Father" to spare Elaine's life. Let your anger fall on me instead of Elaine," she sobs. "...Angry 'Father' grants her petitions." She writes, " The angel placed his sword into its sheath. 'Arise, woman,' he said. "Your petition, has been and granted, then he vanished." ⁷⁰

This is absurd! The Bible says, in (1 Tim. 2:5-6), "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; 6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." Lets let Dr. Brown's words speak here as she writes about the gift of prophecy and the words of knowledge on pages 180 and 181: "Never is a human being glorified by the Holy Spirit. But never does the Holy Spirit lay guilt on a Christian for some sin that has been confessed and forgiven. Demons frequently do both."

A COVENANT WITH GOD

God would not have instructed an angel to do the work that His dear Son has already done for Elaine. The Bible is a covenant that our God has cut with His servants. This covenant is just as legal as any contract, deed, or judicial affirmation produced by any court of system of law. In fact, it is the ultimate covenant by which all systems of law receive their rights or powers. Man would have no power to make laws or establish legal authority had he not received this right from the Lord. Apostle Paul affirmed this fact, "Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God," (Rom.13:1).

Our God and His covenant of blood was created by the sacrifice of His Son, Jesus Christ. (Not anything that Rebecca Brown could do). It is irreversible and will soon be perfectly fulfilled in a total redemption of His universe. God is sovereign over His creation nothing can hinder His perfect will. We are His creation and He gave us the choice to obey His plan. He has a perfect will and we will be blessed and honored within His plan, but He will not force us to obey His plan. Millions have destroyed themselves resisting the will of God. The Bible is a beautiful picture of both those that obeyed and experienced His best and those that disobeyed and experienced terrible failures. The Father has a plan that will assured His blessings, but He will not make you a robot; forced to submit.⁷¹

It's though God's perfect covenant of the Blood of Jesus that our sins are covered, not through some silly woman's idea of self-sacrifice to cover another woman's rebellion! The Bible says, "Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, the Lord knoweth them that are his. And, let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity," (2 Tim. 2:19).

Chapter Five

Rebecca Teaches Against---Gifts of the Holy Spirit

BROWN BECOMES ELAINE'S SAVIOR

Let's Brown's own words speak for us here. She is writing against the gifts of prophecy and the words of knowledge on pages 180 and 181: "Never is a human being glorified by the Holy Spirit. But never does the Holy Spirit lay guilt on a Christian for some sin that has been confessed and forgiven. Demons frequently do both." ⁷² (Dr, Brown's emphasis).

Biblical intercession is praying for others. It is praying specific blessings for specific people . . . for believers who have fallen into sin, (Gal. 6:1) and for one another, (Jam. 5:16). Praying biblically for others would include praying that they might comprehend the love of Christ (Eph. 3:14-16); that their love might grow and abound (Phil. 1:9); that they might learn to test things and approve what is excellent (Phil. 1:10); that they might be fruitful in every good work, increased in the knowledge of God, strengthened with all might." (Col. 1:9-11).

God is very pleased when one enters into intercession for another. "And the Lord saw it... and wondered that there was no intercessor ..." (Isa. 59:15, 16), " ... Far be it from me that I should sin against the Lord by ceasing to pray for you" (1 Sam. 12:23).

The Scripture that should capture Dr. Brown's attention when fighting for Elaine's freedom and deliverance is: "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong - holds, casting down imaginations (speculations) and every thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ," (11 Cor. 10:4,5).

This is the mighty power of our spiritual weapons. We must pray that all of this will be accomplished in the ones for concerned; that is, that the works of the Enemy will be torn down.

Dr. Brown should have claimed the tearing down of all the works of Satan, such as false doctrine, unbelief, atheistic teaching and hatred, which the Enemy may have built up in Elaine's thinking. She should have prayed that her very thoughts would be brought into captivity to the obedience of Christ. It is with the authority of name of the Lord Jesus, we claim deliverance from the power and persuasion of the Evil One and from the love of the world and lust of the flesh. Dr. Brown should also pray that her conscience may be convicted, that God may bring her to the point of repentance and that she may believe as she hears or reads the Word Of God.

Dr. Brown goes on to say: "The battle had been unrelenting and they were both exhausted and discouraged." Who was the angel Rebecca throws herself on the floor asking God to let his anger fall upon her instead of Elaine - an angel of light?

Note from author

The Bible says, "Greater is he that is in you (Christ), than he that is in the world (Satan). 1 John 4:4.

Anytime an angel appeared to a person in the Bible, there was always great fear but angels would never let a person worship them but they always turned the person to Jesus, not Moses, as Dr. Brown's text seems to show.

Dr. Brown explains that she was following Moses' example by asking God to let His wrath fall upon her instead of Elaine because she had rebelled.⁷³

Note that the Bible says: "... it is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing." John 6:63. The Enemy will use every possible means to silence our intercession and to block a Christian's attack against him. We must not only understand our Enemy, but also our authority in Christ and how to use our spiritual weapons. Every Christian should be taught how to wear the armor that God has provided for our protection. Thus equipped and protected, we need not have any fear.

Remember that we have no power and no authority other than that of Christ and Jesus Christ is our one and only Mediator!

I don't know where Jesus, our mediator, is glorified among this Dr. Brown unscriptural religious babble. To pray in the name of the Lord Jesus is to ask for, or to claim, the things which the blood of Christ has secured. Therefore, each individual for whom prayer is made should be claimed by name as God's purchased possession, in the name of the Lord Jesus and on the basis of HIS SHED BLOOD ALONE.

The next day Dr. Brown was struck with "the most incredible illness she had ever experienced."

"Lord," she asked, "Is this from Satan?" (The Word of God would have shown her that this evil was not from God). "No," a spirit that talks to her says, "This is my answer to your petitioning," was the quick response from supposedly the Holy Spirit.

Dr. Brown's explanation that God put this illness upon her instead of Elaine, is saying that God is evil. This is one of the most stupid concepts of our most Holy God that I've ever read. Dr. Brown says it is through this punishment from God, that Elaine comes to repentance. This is a convoluted explanation of God's mercy and has nothing to do with biblical repentance. Another words, Dr. Brown becomes Elaine's savior! Where do we find Jesus in this mess?

The Bible teaches that the Holy Spirit convicts us of sin but there is no scripture reference that conveys that He punishes Christians to bring them to repentance. The Bible, for sure, never teaches that we can suffer in someone else's place for their evil.

Dr. Brown said that she heard Satan petitioning (her) "God" to let him sacrifice them at a black mass to show God how shallow their commitments were! My God, if her god is entering into such dialogue with Satan, then He has denied the death and purpose of Jesus Christ!

What hogwash!

This woman never shows Christianity in a positive light. She always writes depicting Christians as defeated financially as well as socially.

Dr. Brown tells how her parents covenanted with God for another child, and that after her birth, she could never remember feeling well in her whole life. She claims she was saved by the age of 5 years old. She described the group that her parents belonged to as being "demonically controlled and very evil."²⁵

"After leaving the cult," she says, "she started to medical school, sic. I fully expected that when I finally made such a sweeping and total commitment that I would be struck by lightning and fall down on my face and speak in tongues - after all, that is how it happened in all the books I had been reading. To my horror, nothing happened. I didn't even feel different. I had made a terribly big commitment to the Lord expecting Him to do something miraculous in return but He didn't choose to do so."

She writes, describing a very confused dialogue concerning the baptism of the Holy Ghost. She never makes a clear statement whether, she received this experience nor does she admit receiving "tongues". She does make a broad statement saying, "Most want power without the cross."

Everyone knows that Chick Publishers always is opposed Pentecostal-Charismatic movements and always collides with the gift of tongues. Dr. Brown was just pleasing her sponsor. The troubling thing to me is, why is it we mainly see Pentecostal-Charismatic people supporting her looney books?

BAPTISM OF THE HOLY GHOST

Dr. Brown says: "Why is it that we so easily tolerate sin in our lives? Yes we will always be liable to sin as long as we are here in our earthly bodies, but in light of Christ's specific commandment to be perfect, why are we so comfortable with a certain level of sin in our lives? Why are we so willing to (accept anything less than the fulfillment of the command? I'll tell you; because we want Christ to baptize us with Holy Spirit, but we don't want Him to baptize us with fire!." What form of spiritual confusion is this? ⁷⁴

Here it is again, friends. This woman has a way of implanting doubts in the minds of Christians concerning the Scriptural truth of the Baptism of the Holy Ghost. She, with her boorish-boldness, associates living in sin to the Baptism of The Holy Ghost because Christians do not seek after the "Baptism of Fire." Millions Spirit filled Christians believe that their Baptism Of The Holy Ghost, is pure holy and the power that enables them to live fully for God. Dear Jesus, help our leaders to discern in these perilous times.

Dr. Brown tells a testimony concerning a woman she calls Lea. "About ten months after her conversion, as Lea was looking around for church, she ran into a woman who claimed to be a Christian. This lady asked her if she had received the "baptism of the Holy Spirit," writes Brown.

Lea did not know what this was, but, wanting everything the Lord wanted to give, she listened to the woman. The woman took her to her house and laid her hands on Lea trying get her to speak in tongues. Lea could not, and was overwhelmed with guilt because the woman told her she was grieving the Holy Spirit. The woman accused Lea of refusing to let Him speak through her in tongues. Then she asked Lea to come to church with her the following night. A special guest speaker would lay his hands on her and she would receive the gift of the Holy Spirit and she would speak in tongues. Lea did know from her intensive study of the Bible that something like this occurred in Samaria." sic.

Dr. Brown then quotes (Acts 8:12-17), and then says: "However, please note that the scripture does not mention specifically that these people spoke in tongues. Also, Lea did not know how to test the spirits as found in (1 Jn. 4:1-2)."

Readers again notice how slickly that Dr. Brown comes against the gift of tongues given by the Holy Spirit. She quotes and twist Scriptures to prove her own doctrine that the Baptism of the Holy Spirit does not accompany tongues!

DR BROWN BLASPHEMES THE HOLY GHOST

Superstitions have received a new treatment by Rebecca Brown, whose latest book is more cabalistic than biblical; more mystical than scriptural; more supernatural than spiritual.

The early church understood the principles of Satan's power, opposite the powers of God. If Satan was supernatural then the contest between the two would be on an equal footing. This has never been the case and the Holy Scripture is filled with Biblical certainty. Paul said, "To open their eyes, [and] to turn [them] from darkness to light, and [from] the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me." (Acts 26:18). Satan definitely has power, but it is only paranormal power and it is totally helpless compared to the supernatural powers of God.⁷⁵

Dr. Brown tells about Lea attending church that night "with great expectations. Lea goes forward at the altar call and lets the evangelist lay his hands upon her and prayed." She writes: "Lea said that as she prayed she felt as if a ball of fire struck her in her stomach with such force that she was thrown backwards onto her back on the floor. The fire spread up into her chest and immediately she started speaking in tongues. Everyone rejoiced, saying that she had received the Holy Spirit."³⁰

"However," Dr. Brown continues to write, "the following years were to prove that Lea had an unholy spirit (her emphasis)"³¹

Notice how Dr. Brown associates a person seeking the Baptism of The Holy Spirit and "God" giving her an unholy spirit! Millions receive the Baptism of the Holy Spirit in exactly the manner that Lea did and they never receive an unholy spirit!

Here is what the Bible says about the Baptism in the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands.

(Acts 19:3-6), And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism. Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

Still Dr. Brown does not leave it here. She goes on to associate demon possession with the fact that Lea received the Baptism of Holy Spirit and the gift of tongues! This is more than incredible!

Look what Dr. Brown says as she twists the scriptures to explain: "Troubles started almost immediately. She had continual stomach and intestinal problems which the doctors could neither diagnose nor cure. She began having difficulty hearing the Lord speak to her and in reading her Bible. By the time I (Dr. Brown) met her, 16 years after her conversion, she was completely unable to maintain a clear mind long enough to read the Bible for more than minute or two at a time. The only way she could pray was in tongues. She was very ill, discouraged and depressed." ⁷⁶ Brown says, that because Lea received the Holy Ghost by the laying on of hands, she received a devil. And then she charges that the Holy Ghost made her sick!

"Satan is the master imitator, but his inspiration can never be seen or used as a kind of foundation for truth." ⁷⁷

My Lord, this totally blaspheming the Holy Ghost!

The Bible says, (Matt 7:10-11)—“Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?”

The Bible say Believers are temples of His Holy Spirit. Nothing that has happened in the negative can destroy the truth revealed in Holy Scripture. Those who speak as though the gifts of the Spirit have ceased have absolutely no Bible to stand on.

Brown states: I realized that Lea most likely had a demon of false tongues. I asked her if she could speak in tongues any time she wanted. She said "yes," So I asked her to start speaking in tongues and keep speaking in tongues regardless of what I said....

After taking authority over a spirit, speaking through Lea in tongues, in the name of Jesus Christ my Lord and Savior, she claims that Lea started cursing.... Brown then asked the question - "how could a demon of false tongues have gotten into Lea since she was Christian? Wasn't she protected?" ³³

Brown then answers her own question: "NO," because she disobeyed God's commands given in the Bible. She subjected herself to a person whom she did not know, accepting whatever he chose to give to her." Secondly, she again invalidated God's word by not testing the spirit she received to be sure it was the Holy Spirit."³⁴ She ends this tale with "Be very cautious about who you submit yourself and your children to. There are many wolves in sheep's clothing."

Author's Note

The Holy Ghost is Given by laying on of hands! It is for every believer, but is not automatic with repentance and salvation. The house of Cornelius received salvation and this baptism during the first sermon they ever heard. The Anointed voice of the Apostle Peter was sounding on this home when the entire congregation, as one person, was saved and filled with the Holy Ghost!

“While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as come with peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues and magnify God. Then answered Peter, Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?" (Acts 10:44:47). There are many other corresponding Scriptures that lead us to this wonderful experience with our God.

This is what Jesus said. (Matt 7:6-10) "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. 7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: 8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. 9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? 10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?"

Really!

Friends this woman is an absolute genius of the use of demonic propaganda!

First, Dr. Brown seems to be saying we can't trust evangelists that is invited by your pastor into the local church because we don't know them. When a pastor invites an evangelist to a church, they usually know the credentials of that person. Pastors certainly will answer to God, if they allow a "wolf in sheep's clothing to preach to his people."

I believe most churches are careful about inviting evangelists. I also think that Dr. Brown is again sowing seeds of doubt about the reality of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit to please her publisher, Mr. Chick, who is a Fundamentalist, preaches against tongues and the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, Pentecostal and Charismatic.

Second: How would Lea know how to "test the spirits?" This story shows that she is a young Christian. Is our God so weak that we can't trust him to protect us when we are ignorant?

Third: Dr. Brown wants Spirit filled Christians to believe that when they seek after the Baptism of The Holy Spirit with the evidence of receiving a gift from the Holy Spirit of tongues; they are endangered of becoming DEMON POSSESSED!

Its incredible that these crazy, demonic twisted books are being sold in Pentecostal and Charismatic book stores - WORLD WIDE! May God help us!

SIGNS AND WONDERS

Dr. Brown writes: "I am increasingly concerned with the romance going on between Christians and miracles"

Here she goes again! She writes a long discourse against signs and wonders by quoting (Matt.16:4), again twisting and using a Scripture that was never intended to be used against Christian ministers ministering in their authority to heal the sick.

Dr. Brown seems to only believe in being healed by a doctor—not the Holy Spirit's anointing which is done in the name of Jesus!

She always attacks the biblical power of God and His Word as being "false" but then she makes sure to give the Devil his due. He always has more power than God in her books!

After quoting this Scripture, she then writes: "For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.,” (Mk. 13 :22-23).

I am not going to bother to express to you the doubt that she plants into her readers mind here but she quickly tells Christians that Buddhist priests, African witch doctors, and American Indian medicine men, in many parts of the world, are able to effect miraculous cures. She also associates the New Age with its westernized version of Hinduism as offering us an amazing variety of demonic miracles. Then she jumps on the Catholic Church and the Charismatic Movement!

She then asks the question: How are we to sort out all of these false miracles from the real ones? ³⁷ (How about using the Word of God?)

Dr. Brown writes: "Many Christians open themselves up to demons through a lusting for miracles " At the end of this paragraph she warns:

"Don't get caught up in "Christian" show-biz!"³⁸

What do we do with the prophecy in Isaiah? (Isa 53:5), But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed." Do we base our faith on a silly woman's interpretation or do we believe the Apostle Peter's interpretation of the power of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ? (1 Pet. 2:24), "Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed." Dear Lord, open the eyes and ears of your Church leaders to see this horrendous minister of the Angel of Light!

Dr. Brown writes in Vessels of Honor, "Within charismatic circles, a very common demonic doorway is speaking in tongues, or in receiving a "word of prophecy ". Satanists have no trouble whatsoever in recognizing this activity as demonic; the only people who have trouble with recognizing it are "Christian" people seeking experience over faith. Satan has discovered he can dress up the experience to make it look, feel, and sound like Christianity, thereby deceiving multitudes of people into thinking they are true Christians, and are really going to Heaven?"

Dr. Brown goes on to write against "Tongues," and later against the gifts of Prophecy and Words of Knowledge. I'm just not going to write anymore about her nonsense but take it from me, it never gets any better.

Christian pastors and workers I hope you will awaken to protect your sheep against this false book that is being read by about every Christian I personally know!

Chapter Five

Satanic Hostility

CONTINUED SATANIC AGGRESSION

Dr. Brown explains why Elaine is still sick after her deliverance 6 years ago! She concludes it is due the to law of sowing and reaping.

I wonder where Jesus' atonement disappeared? - Jesus the Savior, Sozo, healer. Savior, and delivered has vanished.

In her descriptions concerning spiritual warfare, she continues to depict an extremely powerless Jesus and an highly powerful Satan with forceful demonic powers. These imbecilic books are filled with heresy and biblical teachings that most classical Pentecostal and Charismatic Churches do not teach nor believe! Her descriptions are truly out of balance. , she says that, for most people involved into the occult, their major motivation for getting so involved is their desire to look into the spirit world.

However, God forbids such activity.

2) Daniel 10 -- The entire chapter gives a glimpse into the spirit world, and a better understanding of the spiritual warfare that is occurring every single day in the realm of the Heavenlies in heaven, in outer space and in the air surrounding earth. In this chapter, Daniel prayed to God for further understanding as to when God would release His people from the capture of Babylon. Daniel prayed and fasted partially for "three whole weeks". On the 21st day after he prayed, an angel came to him with God's answer. The angel told Daniel that God had sent him from Heaven with His answer to Daniel's prayer on the first day Daniel prayed. However, the angel was kept from coming to Daniel for three weeks because he had been attacked by a very powerful demon, who is identified as the "Hostile Prince of Persia". This demon was personally responsible to Satan to keep the pagan king of Persia making decisions that would move the country in the direction Satan wanted it to go. This demon was so powerful, this holy angel had to call upon the Archangel Michael, Israel's personal protector, to win the battle for him. This definitely reveals levels of both demonic and God's angels! Then, after he had finished with Daniel, this angel stated that he would have to go help holy angels fight against demons for the control of Greece. From this Scripture, we see that Satan assigns his most powerful demons to personally attend to the leadership of the various nations of the world, to try to move their policies in the paths Satan would like them to go.

Even though the average Christian does not understand the reality of spiritual warfare, practicing Satanists understand it very well. In fact, they are specifically trained to carry out this type of spiritual warfare daily. Operating in agreement with demons, DEMONIC DOORWAYS are open to them and they can clearly see into the spiritual realms to do their dirty work!

Author's Note:

The devil or Satan is introduced to us as a person who opposes God and His work. (See Gen. 3:1; Rom. 15:22.) He is the "god of this world," who blinds the minds of the people to the truths of God's Word (2Cor. 4:4; Eph. 2:2). Having rebelled against God, he was cast out of heaven; then he caused man's fall in paradise. Jesus calls him often as an "angel of light" (2Cor. 11:14), seeking the ruin triumphed over him at the Cross of Calvary (1Jn. 3:8) and in His resurrection, and he will finally be condemned and destroyed (Rev. 20). There are many kinds of demons and they afflict people in various ways (see Matt. 12:22, 17:15-18; LK. 12:16). Also, they bring false doctrine (1Tim. 4:1-4), trying to seduce the elect (Matt. 24:24), oppressing (Acts 10:38), obsessing, and possessing people. They know Jesus, and recognize His power and tremble (Matt. 8:29). For them, hell is the final destination, as it is for Satan.⁷⁸

Jesus is shown throughout the Book of Matthew as having superior power over the Devil. But throughout defeated by Jesus, Satan continues to wield power in the world. Jesus is found by your free choice. Then too, Satan is received by your free choice.

According to Josh McDowell and Don Stewart's book, Understanding the Occult, "If someone wanted to become a witch, there was an initiation process. Some of the techniques were simple and some were complicated. However, there were simple and some were complicated but there were usually two requirement. The first requirement was that the would be witch must join of his or her own free will. The second requirement was that the prospective which must be willing to worship the devil.”⁷⁹

Chapter Six

A Ministers Character

"Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about seeking whom he may devour; Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world," 1 Peter 5:8.

VESSEL OF HONOR--- OR DISHONOR?

Rebecca Brown, MD., has written another book, "Becoming A Vessel of Honor in The Master's Service," shows her detailed knowledge of Satanism and its practices.

Frankly, from what I see, this third book Scripturally worse than the others. In the introduction she says: "In the past few years, the antagonism against me within the Christian community has escalated. I am hated by so many. Newsletters are being printed all over the place supposedly "exposing me." Lies and false accusations are flying . . . especially through the Christian bookstores, by letters and word of mouth amongst Christians." (Thank God for Christians that are discerning her work from her books and her fruit) She says, "Not once has anyone printing a newsletter contacted me to find out if there might be another side to the story! (She tells her side of the story in her books. Everyone that reads Mary Baker Eddy's books and Ella White's books, discerns their belief systems from their books and see that they were not Biblically based). Brown goes on to say, "Rarely does any Christian stop to contact me to see if what is being said is true. Few stop to think that Satan usually destroys people by framing them and setting up all sorts of accusations against them, which is what happened to me. In fact, I have discovered that many Christians love gossip above everything. They justify it to themselves by calling their lies "exposing the truth." ⁸⁰

(Note: I did not contact Dr. Rebecca Brown. This expose' is entirely based on her books and also the reasons that she lost her Medical License which is a matter of public record.) Plus her latest move, she weds a strange man who's past is just as checkered as her past seems to be.

The truth can bear public scrutiny. Truth will get past the noses of theologians in the body of Christ! Truth always agrees with the Word of God.

No public ministry should expect to write books to Christians and not have Christians proof read them to see if they are of the Faith of the Church.

One might say that because of the nature of the contents of Dr. Brown's books, that they were not received by the Body of Christ. In some cases that might be true. However, other writers in this area of thought have been well received and their books have passed the Scriptural test.

Truthfully, it is hard to get into these books if one is familiar with the Word of God because there are so many errors. Sadly, these books have been promoted all over the country and many people have been led down the wrong pathways concerning the power of the Name of Jesus and His everlasting Blood.

I speak from the point of view of a ministry that has ministered to the oppressed for twenty eight years. I have ministered to former Satanists and witches. I have never experienced the turmoil that Dr. Brown describes in her three books. Sure, there is warfare but Jesus is certainly stronger in my life than to leave me in a constant state of depression and defeat. Also, over the years, though I have experienced demons trying to attack me and even coming into my room, they instantly leave when I command them to leave in the Name of Jesus.

The so-called human spirits that Dr. Brown promotes as being more powerful than the name of Jesus, have never visited me or anyone that I have ever known that ministers Deliverance. I personally believe these manifestations that Dr. Brown describes in all her books are nothing more than impersonating devils - Angels of Light.

Dr. Brown's third book continues its bizarre - sensationalistic format. This time it is not being published by Chick. Chapter one continues its themes of powerful demonic attack against her and Elaine. Rebecca continues to anoint and seal their home with oil. They are under siege from dark figures that had gathered on the edge of the property.

Her oil is not working!

SATANIC PUSH PINS

This time, two new personalities, Betty and Esther, (no last names are given) have entered the endless warfare against the devils and so-called human spirits.

Betty puts on some soft praise music and they all started to sing together. "Time passed and the tension grew. Everything outside was deathly still, but the demonic pressure built steadily. They peeked out the windows again. There seemed to be even more shadowy figures out on the lawn, some were coming towards the house." ⁸¹

Betty spoke up. "Listen, it is silly for us to stand here and be nervous and afraid. Let's do something constructive, like make chocolate chip cookies." Can you believe that? Tension is building and these women agree to "bake cookies!" This book is a riot, believe me.

In the second chapter again the animals are sick, Elaine is sick to the point of death, the house is under Satanic siege, and to make a long story short, Rebecca comes to the conclusion that there is an open door because the anointing and re-anointing isn't helping the spiritual atmosphere. The seal on her house keeps breaking according to the voice that leads her that she sometimes calls the Holy Spirit or The Father.

Finally Rebecca zeros in on someone called Anne. "Now listen here," she said, "I've had all I can take! I have no doubt you DO know those men. And, I am just as sure you know how those Satanists knew where we are! You must have some kind of demonic transmitter or horning device on you. You'd better start talking and fast, or I'm going to put you out there and let them get you.

We've played this game long enough!"

Annie hung her head.

"I'm waiting, Annie" Rebecca said in an exasperated tone.

Finally, Annie spoke up. "Well, yes, those two men are Satanists. I was afraid to tell you."

"So HOW did they know where to find us?"

Annie looked down and shuffled her feet uneasily. Finally she spoke again, "Well, it might by my push-pins."

"What are push-pins?" Rebecca and Betty wanted to know.

Again, the occult doctrine is fed to the body of Christ by Elaine. She smacked her forehead saying "Of course, why didn't I think of it?" ⁸²

After some flaky dialogue Betty explains: "They are tiny metal pins which are inserted under the skin in a special ritual that are dipped in acid. Demons are attached to the pins for various functions enter the person when the pin is inserted." It is explained that these push pins are used for the purposes of destruction. The demons associated with the pins are supposed to destroy the person if he or she ever leaves the craft." (This is called Voodoo in witchcraft.)

Rebecca turns to Elaine and says, "Did you have one of these push pins?" Elaine goes into a long teaching session about these so-called push pins. Again feeding the Body of Christ some additional occult ideas.

After more dialogue, Rebecca says, "For two cents I'd like to take a knife and just carve them out!"

Finally Annie says: "There is one in my leg and one in my hands." Rebecca got the oil and covered the areas and prayed ... Father .. we come to you in the name of Jesus. She asked Him to vaporize or bum out this metal pin and completely remove any and all demons associated with the pin."

Annie feels her leg is on fire. "Ask the Lord to stop! It's hurting to much." sic

"I will do no such thing! If you had told me earlier, we could have gotten removed by a doctor with a local anesthetic. Now, you'll just have to put up with the pain."⁸³ (Look at this, a doctor can remove by drugs, but God must give you pain!)

Author's Notes:

This ancient art has appeared in various forms in every period in the world's history. Until modern times, witchcraft has been properly regarded as traffic in evil spirits and witches were considered as persons in a league with the Devil.

The Holy Scripture without equivocation assumes the existence of evil spirits and they have the power to produce effects which cannot be explained as originating from natural causes.

Sorcery is strictly forbidden in the Scriptures: "An the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them. I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people," (Lev. 20:6). And then, "A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: They shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them,” (Lev. 20:27). “And one more, “And when they shall say unto you. Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizard that peep and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God For the living to the dead?” (Isa. 8:9).

JOYCE, FORMER HIGH PRIESTESS

In the third chapter there is a conversation with a woman she calls Joyce. She is supposed to be a former high priestess. I am not going to go into the strange conversation but I will say it consists of Rebecca's constant harangue against Christians: Examples - "The thing that irritates me is that the Christian community is so eager to pass around those false accusations against you without even wondering why none of the documents submitted in your defense are included with the package of accusations. People just don't stop to think!" Joyce said. (Dr. Brown didn't not show up for the hearing to fight for her license.) ⁸⁴

They engage in a long conversation about how stupid Christians are and how they resist "simple things, like the truth about Satanic infiltration of other churches ...'

This line of conversation brings them to Joyce's infiltration of a crusade. " We could move freely throughout the many people at the crusade and everyone accepted us as being Christians without questioning us at all. It was during that weekend that Mary (a fellow witch infiltrating) taught me more about slaying in the spirit. Oh, I could already knock people unconscious just by touching them, but Mary told me that wasn't enough. She told me that because they were violating their own scriptures (Jam. 5:14) by allowing anyone to lay hands on them and pray for them without even checking to see if they were a true servant of Jesus or not, that we were free to do whatever we wanted. Their God wouldn't protect them because they were in direct disobedience to His word."

Joyce goes on to say: "Mary understood that when people knelt before us, or even bowed their heads before us, that they were actively submitting themselves to us and accepting whatever we wanted to give to them. Of course they thought we were praying for them, but their submission to us gave us the legal right to put demons into them. They also directly opened the door for it by allowing their minds to go blank without testing the spirit knocking them out. Mary showed me the proper incantations to do and how to have the people hold their hands up ... Chick publishing cartoons- illustrations are shown. "Then she would tap them first on one hand then on the other, then on their forehead, making the sign of an upside down cross."

"Out they would go, every time. She then did it to me and I fell over unconscious. I guess I was out for five minutes or so. When I awoke, I found that I had acquired a new ability to put demons into the people I prayed for. And so he did. I'm sure that isn't the only way people put demons into people by having them hold their hands like that, but that is how we did it."

(Evidently, these women have never been slain in the Spirit before. First place, you don't lose consciousness and your mind doesn't go blank! Their descriptions of this power simply does not fit the experience.)

They continue to tear down the Power Of The Holy Ghost by talking about "false words of knowledge claiming that they were no more than a demon of divination!"⁸⁵

This dumb book makes me sick to even have to discern it. Someone has to tell the Body of Christ the Truth! I believe enough has been said to show you the extreme religious spirit that is operating through these women. However, I can't leave this expose' without showing one more crazy thing that Dr. Brown talks about.

Notes from Author:

Glory of the Holy Spirit Power

There has been a great deal of controversy in recent days centered around the spiritual phenomenon known as "slain in the Spirit." While the terms "Slain in the Spirit" or "Falling under the Power" are not found in the Scriptures, it is worthwhile to investigate what the Scripture says in reference to this experience.

Physical evidence of the presence of the power of the Lord is not new. It has always been an inseparable part of God's dealings with men. Whatever response is given by people in the presence of the Lord, it is important to understand it is a sign that God is present.

We find examples of this phenomenon in several places in the Scriptures:

none is so thrilling to me as the record of the dedication of Solomon's Temple. It is a repeated passage, but for this study I am using the story as it appears in 2 Chronicles 5.

David had wanted to build the house of the Lord. However, God told him the temple would be constructed by his son after his death. (1 Chron. 28). David had even gone to the extent of amassing materials and supplies, drawing plans and laying the charge to build upon Solomon. Solomon took it all in deep seriousness and built the house for the Lord. The day came when it was finished and the dedication services were set. It was a great day in Israel.

The dedication of Solomon's temple (2 Chron. 5) is a beautiful example of God's slaying power. Solomon brought silver, gold, and musical instruments to the temple as the Ark of the Covenant was set in its place. Trumpeters and singers began to praise and thank the Lord in unison. Then the house was filled with the cloud of the glory of God, the Shekinah, so that the priest could not stand to minister because of the cloud.

The dedication services were highlighted by the placing of the Ark of the Covenant in its place. The action required the purification and sanctification of the priest as a body. They did not sanctify according to order or course, but as a body (2 Chron. 5:11).

One hundred and twenty priests stood clean before the Lord blowing their trumpets in unison with the singers (vs. 12-13). A great cry of praise went up to Heaven. This released the power and blessing of the Lord upon His people in Solomon's day.

When the priests stood blowing their trumpets - all 120 of them in unison, and the singers sang about the goodness and mercy of the Lord, something dynamic occurred.

THE GLORY OF THE LORD FELL!

The record is that the glory of the Lord filled the house of God (2Chron. 5:14)! Solomon's own commentary upon this is found in (6:1). He referred to the Lord's word that He would dwell in the thick cloud (Psa. 97:2). It wasn't a little cloud when the people praised the Lord with the words which delighted the heart of God! It was a cloud that filled the place, all pervasive and overpowering.

What was the result from the incoming of the presence of the Lord?

"So the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud," (5:14). The priests - all 120 of them were slain in the Spirit!

If it is objected that this is an unwarranted extension of the text, let my reader turn to (2 Chron. 7:1-2). It would appear that when the glory of the Lord filled the place, and the priests were unable to stand the blazing intensity of the power of the divine presence. In chapter 7, they are seen to be outside the house of the Lord, and unable to enter because of the glory.

What did they do? Just kept on praising the Lord with the same power-releasing formula, "He is good; for His mercy endureth forever." (2 Chron. 7:3). It was glory upon glory for the people of God that day. The blessing flowed from Heaven in unbroken sequence, and the priests were so involved in the outflow that they were unable to carry on their normal functions. For twenty-two days the power of God lay on the people, and finally on the twenty-third day. Solomon sent the people home.

The Lord told Solomon that He heard his prayers. The Lord said, that He would stay among the people, (7:12). He further instructed them that if one should enter to destroy the power and fellowship, the people could restore the lifelines by repentance and prayer leading to divine forgiveness (7; 14).

Centuries later, "priests of royalty" (1 Pet. 2:9) stood before the Lord in an attitude of expectant prayer. Our precious Lord Jesus, the Heavenly Ark, was in position, seated at the right hand of the Father. There was absolute unity of heart and mind (Acts 2:1). The glory of the Lord fell and filled the place. The Promise of the Father was fulfilled. The Holy Spirit ushered in the Age of Power.

A. C. Gaebelein's work The Prophet Daniel, says: Daniel acted in faith . . . God honored his faith. Then he talked with angels. Visions came to him. Gabriel appeared next and afterwards was sent 'Flying Swiftly' with a great message to Daniel. And now after Daniel's prayer and fasting, the Lord Himself appeared to the prophet, who had been so faithful. Thus, he went from glory to glory.

Yet . . . when he comes face to face with the Lord of Glory, he utterly collapses and sinks into the dust in His Holy and glorious presence, and that is the place which belongs to every saint . . .

Gaebelein's reasoning is, The Lord Jesus Christ made a personal appearance to Daniel, and it was accompanied by the most astonishing physical phenomenon.

The similarity to the later experience of John is startling, even extending to the touch of the hand of the Son of God. The passage reads in (Rev. 1:12), we find the manifestation: "And when I saw him I fell at His feet as dead."

THE NEW TESTAMENT EXAMPLES

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable . . . " (2 Tim. 3:16).

John became so full of the glory of the Lord and the beauty of His person that he just plainly "fell . . . as dead," (Rev. 1:17). One thing I know: it is scriptural and it is beautiful.

In (Acts 9:1-18), Paul was stopped by a bright light from heaven while on his way to Damascus. When the presence of God confronted him, he fell to the earth and God talked with him.

In the Garden of Gethsemane, (Jn. 18:3-6) as Judas arrived with a band of soldiers, Jesus asked them whom they sought. They replied, "Jesus of Nazareth." When Jesus said, "I Am He," thus, confirming His deity and declaring the presence of God, they went backwards and fell to the ground. Six hundred soldiers, a Roman cohort, accompanying the traitor Judas, had come upon the Master to capture Him and take to trial. When He identified himself, every one of them seems to have hit the ground backwards like so many dominoes!

What really happens when people are genuinely slain by the Spirit is that the Holy Spirit reveals Jesus for whom He really is.

In (Rev. 1: 10), John said: "I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, and I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; and in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire and his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. And he had in his right-hand seven stars and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength and when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead." John got so full of the glory of the Lord and the beauty of His presence that he fell as dead. Additional references: (Matt. 17:6, 28:4; Mk. 9:26; Acts 22:7; Acts 26:14).

These scriptural references seem to indicate that those "slain in the Spirit" sensed the presence and Glory of God to such a degree that they could not stand on their feet.

The phenomenon of "Being slain in the Spirit" is scriptural; however, it should not be taken as a sign of spiritual maturity. Some Spirit-filled people may never have this experience.

At the time of falling under the power of the Spirit, people may experience salvation, the baptism in the Holy Spirit, spiritual, emotional, or physical healing, or deliverance. The phenomenon is a sovereign act of God and only the individual being ministered to understand what God is doing with Him through this experience.

There can be counterfeit and soulish manifestations as in other spiritual experiences, worked up by mental and emotional manipulation. However, we should not reject the manifestation of falling under the power of God because of a few faked instances. The genuine are best attested to by the counterfeit (1 Cor 11:19). While ministering, one does not need to be God's helper; there is no need to push or strike a person on the head, or rock him in order to help him fall. This is soulish. God will manifest His presence. He doesn't need any help. So when a person is slain by the Spirit, (falls under the power, falls to the ground, or falls down as dead), that individual arises knowing that God has touched him and met his or her need.

EXAMPLES FROM HISTORY

George Whitefield arrived from England in 1738 to 1770 preaching from Georgia to New Hampshire and Maine. Supernatural Physical manifestations occurred. People went into trances, saw visions. Several stout men fell as though a cannon had been discharged, and a ball had made its way through their hearts. People had to be carried out of the meetings.

A feature of the revival in the West, was there were the physical manifestations. These were seen at the time of the Great Awakening, but they reached a high pitch in the Revival of 1800.

The "falling exercise" was the most common. When a person begins to be affected, he generally sinks down in the place where he stood, and is for a few minutes overwhelmed in tears. He then makes a weeping noise. Then his voice becomes feeble, his features composed. Finally, he is motionless and speechless. During this time his pulse is slow, his hands and feet are cold, the skin fresh and clear, the eyes partly closed. Speech and motion return gradually.

When "faith is obtained" the person rises up and shouts 'glory to God, remaining in a state of ecstasy." Then there were the "rolling exercises" (People would roll over and over like a wheel. The "dancing exercises" (when the jerking of legs looked like dancing). The "running exercises" (merely an attempt to "run away" from the physical manifestations).

When God moves the spirit of man, he also touches in his emotions. Some men are moved more violently than. Certainly, King Saul prophesied, David danced, and Saul (Later Paul) fell blinded when the Spirit of God came upon them. Don't doubt many of the physical manifestations of the Revival of 1800 were of God.

Pentecost in Los Angeles, W. J. Seymour, a Negro Holiness preacher, at 214 North Bonnie Brae Street, demonstrated the Slaying Power of God. Emma Cotton writes: "People were not getting near the house. As the people came they would fall under the power, and the whole city was stirred . . . "This meeting moved to Azusa Street.

1906, a party from Azusa Street Mission visited Chicago. Miss Mable Smith preached nightly to overflowing crowds and wonderful scenes were witnessed . . . The first to receive the Baptism in Chicago were: J. C. Sinclair and W. E. Moody, both of whom became active workers in the new movement. Pastor W. H. Durham, who was in charge of the North Avenue Mission in Chicago, received the Baptism on March 2, 1907, in Azusa Street Mission in Los Angeles.

Throughout the great revivals of Charles Finney in the early part of the nineteenth Century, this phenomenon was present. It seemed to be associated in his ministry with great conviction of sin and resulting conversion. In his autobiography he said, "I observed a woman, supposing she was in a fainting fit, she could not speak. After lying in a speechless state for sixteen hours, Mrs. G's, mouth was opened and a new song was given her. Dr. Charles Price, one of the greatest Spirit-filled preachers in North America in this century, told of a time when he was "slain in the Spirit." He did not want to have such an experience, but when he received the first sign of the power of God, he lay on the floor for hours, while the Spirit burned in and over him. This experience characterized his entire ministry. Many times as he prayed for 500 people, ninety-five percent of them were "slain in the Spirit." People fell where they stood, lay for hours, and arose covered with the glory of God.

Evangelist Maria Woodworth Etter, in the early 1900's had this phenomenon working in her ministry. She says: "Hundreds were converted, many aged ones. I don't think there were a dozen converted that were not over eighteen years of age . . . Signs and wonders" truly followed. The Holy Ghost came in slaying, melting, anointing and healing power."

Katheryn Kuhlman was known for the slaying sign in her ministry in the 60-70,s. The author has this sign in her miracle-healing-deliverance ministry. Sometimes the Lord will have me to sing in the Spirit under His anointing and people will fall under the Power or be "Slain in the Spirit." It is a wonderful touch from the Lord.

Today many are anointed with this sign in their ministries worldwide.

THE RESURRECTION POWERS OF JESUS!

Jesus brought life and power by His resurrection from the grave. All hell could not hold Him in death. A hundred or more armed soldiers stood around his grave to guard against someone stealing His body. They sealed the sepulcher with the governor's seal. It would have been a death sentence if the seal was broken.

There was a great supernatural battle fought. All the armies of heaven were engaged with the hosts of hell around the tomb where the mangled body of Jesus, our crucified Lord, lay cold in death.

Hear the demons, "We have won! He'll never be free! We will hold Him captive. Where is your Prince? Where is Your King?

Listen! The battle turns. The Lord God Almighty came Himself with His great Angel and rolled back the stone from the sepulcher and He sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning raiment white as snow. For fear of Him the keepers did quake, they fell as dead men! (Matt. 28:4).

Did you see it? The presence of God and the men fell as dead men!

"Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. These signs shall follow them that believe; (all that believe on me). These are some of the gifts that I will give to men, In my name they cast out devils, they shall speak with new tongues, they shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly poison it shall not hurt them, they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover," (Mk. 16:17-19).

These were the Savior's last words before He was taken up. The Holy Ghost was poured out with gifts on the Gentile nations, just the same as at Pentecost on the Jews. He gave us gifts with all the Pentecostal power and glory. Our bodies are God's Power House to be channels for the Holy Ghost to flow like a sign to the lost that God is with us.

SIGNS OF HIS INVISIBLE PRESENCE.

All gifts and workings of the Holy Ghost are for the edification of the body of Christ. To make saints, God's people, perfect; to lead them in the same Pentecostal power and gifts. Secondly, Ministers need Him with all these signs and gifts to encourage them. It's a visible sign to the world that God is with them confirming the Word with visible signs. Thirdly, It shows the world an invisible Christ. "For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to ALL GENERATIONS," (Ps.100.)

God has only one body. If he were to give part of His people the supernatural and strip part of it from another part, He would be guilty of having respect to persons. He has one Body Not two!

"For there is no respect of persons with God," (Romans 2:11.)

Jesus is sovereign. We are his members. He is here Now. He is not the God of the dead but the God the living, (Matt. 22:23.)

Solomon and his priests, Daniel, Paul and John, early church leaders and later church leaders are dead; but we are alive. God's name is not, "I used to be, I can, I am able, or I will be, but His name has always been I AM! and it will always be I AM." To be "slain in the Spirit" is a beautiful and biblical experience.⁸⁶

STRANGE DEMONIC FORMS OF DELIVERANCE

Brown says: "In purely demonic poisoning, many times the person can actually feel a burning or tingling sensation traveling up his/her arm immediately after getting their fingers in poison, or getting something such as a splinter in their hand. You MUST anoint immediately with oil to stop the spread of demonic power into the rest of their body, I learned this lesson the hard way. You must apply the oil like a tourniquet above the level of the spread of demonic power, and then drive the demons down and out of the extremity."⁸⁷

This just goofy!

She then draws a Chick type illustration of: (A) a hand and arm showing the fingers infected. (B) picture shows the infection rising beyond the wrist and another hand placing a circle of oil just beneath the elbow. © pictures show the infection rising and two hands bathing oil. (D) the hands are pushing down the arm toward the fingers!

Then she says: If the person is alone and does not have someone to help them, they should apply the "oil tourniquet" first, then wash the area thoroughly to remove many physical poison, or remove the splinter or insert, and then drive the demons down and out of the extremity by using the oil as in the illustration." Does this sound like Christian doctrine to you?

One of the most important tools in the Church is to be able to discern and cast out evil spirits when they are operating withing the Church. We are not cast out the people, only the evil spirits! ⁸⁸

Authors's Note

The Greek word for demon is (De'munz). The modern definition of a demon as an evil spirit is the result of a long development. The word frequently meant something entirely differently to ancient writers. Originally, it referred to a sort of anonymous god, operating alongside of, but somewhat less noticeable than the major deities of the ancient world. Ancient writers speak of both good and bad demons or "daimones."

The Hebrew word elohim, commonly translated "god," is sometimes used in the Old Testament to express this ancient concept. Often, when one id described as "a man of god,” the meaning is that he possesses the ability to interpret omens, or some such similar power, to interpret omens, or some such similar power, and that this ability is attributable to a divine and that this ability is attributable to a divine power, or demon, (see I Samuel 2:27; 9:6; I Kings 12:1; 2Kings 4:7). The Old Testament also refers to the objects of pagan worship and to malign spirits, in the more familiar sense, as demons.⁸⁹

In the New Testament the existence of demons, as responsible for all kinds of disorder, is taken for granted. They are regarded as ministers of Satan, or Belial, or Beelzebub. They are expelled by invoking of the name of God and by the preaching of His redemptive power and are destined to final defeat by the forces of righteousness, to be followed by consignment to ever lasting fire. As in the Old Testament, the objects of pagan worship are occasionally referred to as demons.⁹⁰

THE DELIVERANCE MINISTRY

The deliverance ministry is more controversial today than it was when Jesus cast out devils. The religious people of His time charged that “He cast out devils by Beelzebub.” (Lk. 11:13). Jesus did not have to teach the people the reality of demons. They knew about realism of demonology. However, they had problems discerning the source of his power. Jesus had compassion for His people to live above peer pressure. It is a terrible thing to see someone who is entangled helplessly under the power of demons.

CONQUERING POWER

God’s spiritual dominion is the most astonishing power in the universe. God has always worked through humans to accomplish bring His kingdom to the earth. We must take heaven by force. Just as God gave the people of Israel the promise then told them to take it by force. The Apostle Paul gave the Church the revelation knowledge of the powers and principalities in Ephesians 6. He disclosed that the church was in spiritual warfare gave us the keys to spiritual warfare by using our spiritual weapons. Jesus Christ also told us in (Matt. 11:12), “The kingdom of heaven suffereth violence and the violent take it by force.”

What does God say about principalities and powers?

Jesus knows the subject of principalities and powers. He witnessed Lucifer, the archangel of praise and worship, becomes a potentate of evil principalities and sinful powers.

1. God says that Christ is the creator of all power. (Col. 1:16), “For by him were all things created, that are in heaven and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were created by and for him.”
2. God says Christ is the head of all power.

God elevated Christ above all principalities and powers according (Col. 2:10). “And ye are complete in him which is the head of all principality and power.” (Eph. 1:21), “Far above all principality and power and might, and dominion and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come.”

3. God says that Christ destroyed the Devil’s power.
According to (Col. 2:15), “An having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.”
4. God reveals wisdom to the Church.
(Eph. 3:10), “To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God.”

Isn’t this better than tying a tourniquet around someone’s arm and try to squeeze the demon out of their fingers?

Look at the power that Jesus gave us! (Mk. 16:17-18), “And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; 18.They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.”

Chapter Seven

Dr. Brown Loses Her Medical License

This information came from the court records concerning Dr. Brown's loss of her Medical License.

THE TRUTH ABOUT REBECCA BROWN, M.D. AND ELAINE

Rebecca Brown is really Ruth Bailey, a small-town physician who, after Indiana authorities revoked her license in 1984, traveled to California and began promoting her strange views of the occult and deliverance with the help of Christian tract and comic book publisher, Jack T. Chick. Police reports, medical documents, newspaper articles, and testimony of family and neighbors all verify her confused life and spurious claims.

Rebecca Brown, M. D. changed her name from Ruth Irene Bailey, M.D. in a petition to the Superior Court of California, County of San Bernardino.

Ruth Irene Bailey, of Apple Valley, Calif., dated Feb. 11, 1987, along with her attorney, Robert Salisbury, of Anaheim, requested a name change to Rebecca Brown. The reason given was: "petitioner has become known more by the proposed name through use as a pen name and use of the name in ministry than by her present name."⁹¹

This information appeared in a general-circulation newspaper where it was published once a week for four weeks prior to the date set for hearing on the petition. The name change then was officially registered April 25, 1986. Rebecca's two books were published in 1986 and 1987, before she became well known.⁹²

However could her name change be due to notoriety she had gained under her old name? Ruth Irene Bailey was born in Shelbyville, Ind., to Ebner and Lois Bailey on May 21, 1948. She was raised in Indianapolis. She completed high school, then earned an A.A. degree in nursing at IUPUI (Indiana University - Purdue University at Indianapolis) in May 1968. She worked as a nurse for seven years,³¹ (on the tape, Closet Witches 1, she says she was a nurse for 10 years). She entered Indiana University at Purdue in September 1976.⁹³

She transferred to Indiana University at Indianapolis School of Medicine. She received her Doctor of Medicine degree on April 30, 1979.¹¹ She moved to Muncie

Ind., to begin her internship and residency at Ball Memorial Hospital. This is the "nearby hospital" she refers to repeatedly in her books and tapes as "one of Satan's special hospitals."⁹⁴

Ruth began her internship at Ball Memorial with good recommendations from her school and two reputable physicians, Drs. Cavins and Steel of Indianapolis. However, it appears that early in her internship, she developed an obsession with demons and deliverance.

A spokesman from Ball Memorial, Dr. John Cullison, director of medical education, told the Indianapolis News that ("Dr. Bailey provided 'very good care for a couple of years' after joining the hospitals' residency staff in 1979. 'But then I began getting reports she was exorcizing demons in the intensive care unit," he said. 'I asked her to leave.'" ⁹⁵

During her internship and residency at Ball Memorial, her behavior became more bizarre. She began using candles in the rooms during her exorcism.⁹⁶ Many times she told her patients "she was 'chosen' by God as the only physician able to diagnose certain ailments and conditions which other physicians could not. She believed that other physicians, including physicians from Ball Memorial Hospital in Muncie, Ind., and St. John's Medical Center in Anderson, Ind., were, in fact demons, devils and other evils spirits themselves."⁹⁷

Her behavior became more bizarre as her obsession with demons worsened her mental state. At a later date, Medical licensing Board would hear that she had "stated on numerous occasions that she possessed the capability of 'sharing' her patients' illnesses in fighting the demons, devils and other evil spirits that were allegedly causing the various ailments and conditions."

Brown also had during the first decade of her spiritual "career" an associate named Elaine who claimed to be the bride of Satan, complete with a honeymoon, who said she had been "Satan's representative" to the world who negotiated weapon sales with foreign heads of state.⁹⁸ Previous books by Brown tell stories of the two teaming up to fight occultists in their small Indiana town and of Brown delivering nearly 1,000 people from hard-core Satanism in just over two years.⁹⁹

Ruth and Elaine did meet at Ball Memorial and eventually began living together. However, the real story of their meeting and relationship bears little resemblance to the story told to and promoted by Jack Chick.

Edna Elaine Moses was Born Edna Elaine Knost in sleepy New Castle, Ind. in 1986 she legally returned to her maiden name.¹⁰⁰ Interviews with family members of Elaine disclosed her as living a life permeated with lies and fabrications. They expressed little surprise at her wild tales promulgated in Rebecca's books. Elaine's exaggerations proved, at times an embarrassment for these family members, noting she would do almost anything to receive attention. For instance, one method repeatedly utilized by Elaine was her pretending to have seizures at public functions.¹⁰¹

One medical record says Elaine has a "mixed personality disorder," and "is of questionable reliability."

Elaine describes a certain "camp" where she was inducted into witchcraft and Satanism. She describes this "camp" in great detail: "I stepped directly into this cult when I went to that summer camp with Sandy. I was very excited by the time we arrived. With excitement you lose a lot of what you see and hear. We were taken to the dorms where we were to stay and made to feel very welcome. The camp had many facilities: museums, libraries, and different houses where you could go to clairvoyants, hypnotists, palm readers, tarot card readers, voodoo experts, etc., Some of these people lived there year 'round, some didn't. There was the place where the cult officially meets with the unknowing public."¹⁰²

Based upon Elaine's description of the Camp and its location, she is probably referring to a spiritualist camp known as Camp Chesterfield (Indiana Society of Spiritualists) in the town of Chesterfield, Ind. The camp was established in 1886 by Dr. J.W.Westerfield.¹⁰³

Elaine says she signed her name in blood and became a part of "The Brotherhood at this camp." She does not say how old she was when she did this but says it took place during the summer." She says: "School was out at the time and as I had nothing else to do, I decided to go."

This places the event some time during her youth, probably her mid-teens. Interestingly, the caption next to her senior picture in her high schools' 1965 year book mentions that she was a member of the school's Bible Club.¹⁰⁴

Rebecca and Elaine's story puts their first meeting at Ball Memorial Hospital around 1980. Research into court records of Henry County, Ind., found that Edna Elaine Knost was married Dec. 18, 1966, by the minister of the Foursquare Church of New Castle, Ind.¹⁰⁵

The testimony of Rebecca, Chic and Elaine in the book and tapes, "... Her husband had left and remained with the Satanists. Likewise on tape Closet Witches I.... her husband had left her. He remained in the cult." Documentary evidence shows that the marriage was dissolved in 1967, some 13 years prior to what is alleged in the book and cassette!¹⁰⁶

Shortly after separating from her husband, Elaine returned to live with her mother and step-father. From that time, until the late 1970s, she remained in New Castle working at various jobs which included a car-hop at a drive-in restaurant and a car wash attendant. Also during this time Elaine was continually in and out of hospitals in the New Castle area for assorted surgeries.¹⁰⁷

The Quarterly Journal says: "Some direction seemed to come into Elaine's life as she received training and was licensed by the State of Indiana as a Practical Nurse (LPN), which allowed her employment at area nursing homes. Thus it can be concluded through a definite verifiable chronology, Elaine's claims to have been Satan's representative on an international level, meeting with foreign governmental dignitaries who petitioned "for money for arms" and to have "been to Mecca, Israel, Egypt, also the Vatican in Rome to meet with the Pope . . . for the purpose of coordinating Satan's programs with Satanists in other lands," as well as meeting with "many of the well-known Rock music stars" who "all signed contracts with Satan in return for fame and fortune " are fictitious."¹⁰⁸

We can see that facts clearly demonstrate a life opposite the notoriety as she alleges in the book. He Came To Set The Captives Free.

Officials asked Ball Hospital as Dr. Brown to leave due the her bizarre behavior which had grown to include rites of exorcism in hospital rooms involving the use of candles and claims that she was chosen by God as the only physician able to diagnose certain ailments and conditions." Chick's literature never mentions her dismissal from Ball Memorial. Rebecca just says: "After I finished my residency in internal medicine and critical care, I opened a medical practice in a small town about 60 miles from the city in which Elaine was initiated into Satanism. Over the next three years life was intense." ¹⁰⁹

The Quarterly Journal writes: "While St. John's Hospital would neither confirm nor deny its financial assistance in establishing Rebecca's (Ruth Bailey's) private practice, States Exhibit #16 (St. John's Medical Center, Anderson Indiana, Chronology. Doctor Ruth Bailey {sic} on records a September 20, 1983 an interview between Rebecca (Ruth Bailey) and hospital administrator Sister Michaelleen in which Rebecca "expressed concern about her finances and how much she owed the hospital particularly." Further, Lapel, Ind., residents and police officials (Detective Samuel E. Hanna/Captain Tim R. Davis interview) indicate St. John's financial involvement in Rebecca's opening a general medical practice in Lapel. Finally, following her exodus from Lapel, possession of the house, which served as Rebecca's Medical office, was transferred within a six week time period from Rebecca to the State Bank of Lapel to St. John's Hospital (State of Indiana, Madison County Records, book 619, Pages 216 and 740)."¹¹⁰

Rebecca and Elaine deceived the public when they moved to Lapel. A front-page story in the May 26, 1982 The Lapel Review newspaper said Rebecca was "establishing her general medical practice" there. The article under the headline "Dr. Bailey (sic) to open practice in Lapel," stated, "She and her sister and two friends working with her are very much looking forward to joining the community here." (emphasis added). Rebecca and Elaine were passing themselves off as sisters Edna Elaine Moses even took Ruth's last name and called herself Elaine Bailey! Lapel residents confirmed that they claimed such a relationship.¹¹¹

The story again goes strange as Rebecca and Elaine describe why they left Lapel. She talks about the battle escalating, the Satanists killing her mother, Satanist personal attacks against herself and Elaine destroying everything they had, killing their pets, their church deciding they were serving Satan and refusing to help them, etc., etc., etc. ¹¹²

As to Rebecca's claim the Satanists were instruments of her mother's death - According to the official copy of the "Medical Certificate of Death from the Marion County (Ind.) Health Department," Lois M. Bailey died Dec. 31, 1982 at St. Vincent's Hospital in Indianapolis of a heart attack, she was 75 years old.¹¹³

Another detail Rebecca fails to mention is allegations that she abused Elaine.

Documents show that she indeed did abuse Elaine. On Oct. 17, 1983, officer Samuel E. Hanna of the Madison County (Indiana) Police Department received a phone call from a social worker at St. Vincent's Hospital in Indianapolis. The reason for the call: A woman had been admitted into the hospital whose entire body was covered with lesions. She was incoherent, had received an overdose of drugs and was near death. The patient's name was Edna Elaine Moses, A preliminary investigation found the prime suspect to be Dr. Ruth Bailey (Rebecca Brown).¹¹⁴

Officer Hanna, a born again Christian, was the party responsible for spearheading the major investigation of Rebecca. Several months of investigative work followed which involved the Attorney General's office, the Federal Drug Enforcement Administration, St. John's Hospital, The Indiana Medical Licensing Board and others.¹¹⁵

Based on the investigation the Indiana Medical Licensing Board issued an "Emergency Suspension" Of Rebecca's License, which barred her from Moses shared a bed, there were overflowing ashtrays, plates of leftover food and animal feces, she testified. The house was full of demonology books."¹¹⁶

The Verdict

The Indiana Medical Licensing Boards hearing concluded and a "Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law & Order" was issued. The eight-page report called for the immediate revocation of Rebecca's medical license. Among the most telling excerpts are:

"8. That on numerous occasions Respondent (Rebecca) has knowingly and intentionally mis diagnosed her patients including, but not limited to her patients by the names of Edna Elaine Moses, a/k/a Elaine Moses, a/k/a/ Elaine Bailey (hereinafter collectively referred to as 'Edna Elaine Moses'), Claudia Moses, Lucia Lively, Luccinda Sisson, Key Sisson, Cheryl Maynard, and (2) patients identified only as 'V. B.' and 'K. W.'

9. That the mis diagnosis referred to in 'Finding of Fact' no. 8 above including mis diagnosing alleged leukemia, various blood disorders, gall bladder disease, brain tumors and various other ailments and conditions all of which Respondent Stated were allegedly caused by demons, devils and other evil spirits.

10. That in fact, the patients referred to in "Finding of Fact' no. 8 above, were not suffering from the diagnosed ailments and conditions referred to in "Finding of Fact' no. 9, above.

11. Then on numerous occasions Respondent stated to her patients that she was 'chosen' by God as the only physician able to diagnose certain ailments and conditions which other physicians could not because the other physicians, including physicians from Ball Memorial Hospital in Muncie, Indiana and St. John's Medical Center in Anderson, Indiana, were, in fact, 'demons, devils and other evil spirits' themselves.

12. The Respondent was inappropriately treating Edna Elaine Moses' purported Leukemia with massive doses of Demerol and Phenobarbital to the point where the patient would tolerate 600 to 900 cc injections of Demerol, a fatal dose of which was normally in the 150 to 200 cc range, and up to three times the recommended therapeutic dose of Phenobarbital.

13. That Respondent gave Claudia Moses, a 15 year-old mentally impaired daughter of Edna Elaine Moses who possesses the intellectual age of an 8-year- old, numerous injections of Demerol for alleged 'nausea' and allowed Claudia to administer injections of Demerol to herself.

14. That on numerous occasions the Respondent would supply her patients with excessive amount of legend drugs and/or controlled substances without any explanation, instruction, or appropriate charting.

15. That numerous patients of the Respondent had to undergo detoxification and withdrawal from excessive amounts of legend drugs and/or controlled substances which the Respondent was prescribing and/or administering without valid therapeutic reasons.

16. That while Edna Elaine Moses was under the immediate care and treatment of Respondent, the family of Edna Elaine Moses had to have Edna admitted to St. Vincent's Hospital Emergency Room in Indianapolis, Indiana and subsequently committed to LaRue Carter Hospital in Indianapolis, Indiana, for detoxification from the excessive amounts of controlled substances which Respondent was prescribing and administering for Edna's purported leukemia and for treatment of the multiple infections including infections of her urinary tract and infections of various catheters including a "hickman" catheter used to facilitate the administration of intravenous medications and also for treatment of externally caused lesions.

20. The Respondent has stated on numerous occasions that she possessed the capability of 'sharing' her patients' illnesses in fighting the demons, devils, and other evil spirits that were allegedly causing the various ailments and conditions and that she was, in fact, 'sharing' Edna Elaine Moses' leukemia.

21. That without a valid therapeutic reason the Respondent Self-diagnosed and self-medicated herself with non-therapeutic amounts of Demerol for her 'leukemia' that she was allegedly 'sharing' with Edna Elaine Moses and also for treatment of an alleged malignant brain tumor and myasthenia gravis.

22. That Respondent has been witnessed routinely receiving non-therapeutic doses of at least 3 ccs of Demerol on an hourly basis by injecting herself in the backs of her hands, inside of her thighs, or whatever she could locate a suitable vein.

23. That the Board-appointed psychiatrist who examined the Respondent and reviewed statements made by her patients diagnosed the Respondent as suffering from acute personality disorders including demonic delusions and/or paranoid schizophrenia."

Finally, based upon the foregoing "Findings of Fact," the Board then made its "conclusions of Law," about Rebecca, which included findings of her: addiction or severe dependency upon alcohol or other drugs which endangers the public by impairing a practitioner's ability to practice safely

3. Prescribing or administering a drug for other than generally accepted therapeutic purposes; and,

4. Gross negligence in the practice of medicine."

The most important point of the medical report is the divulging of Demerol overdoses by both Elaine and Rebecca. Addiction to Demerol, a depressant, has clearly identifiable side effects. The Essential Guide to Prescription Drugs describes the side effects of a Demerol overdose: "Disorientation, hallucinations, unstable gait, paradoxical behavioral disturbances may suggest psychotic disorder." The Guide goes on: weakness, fainting, disorientation, dizziness, impaired concentration, dependence, confusion, convulsions.¹¹⁷

As one would expect the board issued an "Order" as follows:

"1. That Respondent's license to practice medicine in the State of Indiana, license no. 29402, is hereby revoked."

The Indianapolis News relates other details:

"Testimony for 19 witnesses revealed that Dr. Bailey, a former registered nurse, began an impressive medical career in 1979 after excelling in medical school.

Over the last three years she deteriorated into a woman plagued by drug addiction, religious extremism and a belief that patients and colleagues were possessed by devils, witnesses said.

Several witnesses declined to reveal their current addresses saying they feared retaliation from Dr. Bailey. The physician carries a handgun and has threatened to harm people she claims are possessed, they said.

'Her diagnosis was that I was possessed by many demons, including one like an octopus with long tentacles...' "¹¹⁸

According to the witnesses interviewed in the article according to the witnesses interviewed in the article, Dr. Bailey claimed to have attended a human sacrifice ceremony; that a demon had attacked Dr. Bailey and she responded by severing the demon's arms, legs and head and afterward God took Dr. Bailey to heaven and gave her a drink from a silver cup. ¹¹⁹

Also submitted into evidence at the hearing were 11 photographs taken at St. Vincent showing bluish-yellow sores over most of Mrs. Edna Elaine Moses' body apparently caused by repeated injections. ¹²⁰

The article goes on, "Several witnesses said they saw Dr. Bailey inject herself, Mrs. Moses and Mrs. Moses teenage daughter with Demerol and morphine. Great quantities of drugs were kept on hand, and the Bailey home was littered with used needles and syringes." ¹²¹

The Quarterly Journal article I mentioned earlier gives much of the same information I have given here and the authors investigated a number of specific factual details related by 'Elaine' and Dr. Brown. For example, Dr. Bailey says that the Satanists were the instrument of her mother's death. The Journal article uncovered the death certificate which gave a heart attack as the cause of death for this 75 year old woman.¹²²

It is impossible to determine how much, if any, real contact with Satan Elaine and Rebecca had while under the influence of drugs. But one can be sure that their drug-influenced state brought no direct revelation from God. Possibly both were feeding and fueling the interpretations of their fantasies. Rebecca and Elaine's perception of the facts and personal experience are akin to the image one sees in a fun house mirror - the image is there but is a complete distortion of reality.

Rebecca and Elaine's story, as to Chick, with its extra-biblical claims and sinful origins cause it to be found wanting when held up to the standard of God's Word. Further we cannot ignore the vast amount of documentation and testimony given by police, doctors, lawyers, family members and acquaintances; nor can we give heed to the claim that they all are part of Satan's ploy to discredit Rebecca and Elaine.

Ruth Bailey's medical career had been cut short as she had "deteriorated into a woman plagued by drug addiction, religious extremism and a belief that patients and colleagues were possessed by devils."¹²³

Jack Chick continues to deceive the public with his promotion of questionable and sensationalistic testimonies. The advancement of such in no way edifies the body of Christ. It appears Chick has, himself, fallen prey to Satan's wiles. We hope in the future he acknowledges, the sordid and suspicious past of these women and admits he has been deceived. Our prayer, too, is that Rebecca and Elaine will repent of the lies and deceptions which cause evil suspicions among Christians and serve to harm the Church.¹²⁴

Chapter Eight

Rebecca Brown Becomes Mrs. Daniel Michael Yoder

My father used to say, “Birds of a feather, flock together.” Dr. Brown's claims are particularly extreme because she claims to have had physical contact with demons, devils and Satan himself.

Brown also wrote that in the mid-1980s, before she moved to California, she made a covenant with God that included the condition she “would eventually lay down [her] life out here for the Lord.”⁷ Despite that covenant, Brown dissolved her partnerships with Elaine and Jack Chick and left California. On Dec. 10, 1989, she married Daniel Michael Yoder, who was living in Phoenix, Ariz., at the time.

The problem that the church face is that people unquestionably follow men and women who lead them into unbiblical principles, the Apostle Paul said, “Follow me, as I follow Jesus.” Jesus said, “The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, follow me,” (Jn. 1:4).

Spiritual blindness is the greatest tragedy of our age. The Bible warns, "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth," (1 Tim. 2:15).

The Lord says that false prophets will come to us in sheep's clothing. That is to say, they will be disguised as true Christians but he says inwardly they are ravening wolves. We know that wolves are a serious life threat to sheep. If left to do as they please, the wolf will attack, kill, and feed on a sheep. Just of itself, a wolf is a serious threat to a sheep. Yet, if the wolf is given the disguise of another sheep, the threat is even worse. Just think about it -- if it was obvious that the false teachers were not God's ministers, then Christians wouldn't follow them, and they wouldn't be a threat. However, Satan has given them clever disguises, because it is his desire for them to destroy us. Jesus tells us, though, that we will know them by their fruits. Their disguise may be clever, but their fruits -- their words, actions, lifestyles, etc. -- will give them away. But we must open our eyes and be aware that there are wolves among us disguised as one of us! Don't blindly follow anyone. God has given us the Bible so that it can be our guide and so that we can distinguish truth from error.

Witchcraft is known as the "Old Religion" and is an ancient practice dating back to biblical times. Witchcraft can be defined as the performance of magic forbidden by God for non-biblical ends. The word witchcraft is related to the old English word (wiccian), "practice of magical arts."

The disciples all had a great burden for the purity of the faith. Sloppy Christianity has been around since the beginning. This is way we must contend for the faith. The word contend means to firmly have confidence and assert your faith. The Apostle Jude said, "Dear friends, although I was very eager to write to you about the salvation we share, I felt I had to write and urge you to contend for the faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints. For certain men whose condemnation was written about long ago have secretly slipped in among you. They are godless men, who change the grace of our God into a license for immorality and deny Jesus Christ our only Sovereign and Lord.," (Jude 1:3-4).

Timothy also warned of false teachers of our time, "For the time will come when men will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear," (2 Tim. 4:3). He also warned them in (1 Tim. 4:16), to "Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers," In (2 Thess. 2:15), continues to affirm the necessity of having a unfaltering grasp on what you choose to accept and believe. " So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the teachings we passed on to you, whether by word of mouth or by letter."

If those who call themselves apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers teach against the core doctrines of the Christian Faith, whether explicitly or implicitly, we are to admonish them once or twice and if they do not repent we are to reject them as heretics. (Tit. 3:10), tells us to warn a divisive person once, and then warn him/her a second time. After that, have nothing to do with him/her.

DANIEL MICHAEL YODER'S STORY

Brown spins another yarn in the biographical sketch of her husband in Unbroken Curses.¹²⁵ She writes that her husband was born into "a very wealthy Jewish family of international bankers" (She claims he was born into the Rothschild family of England and they had $100,000 death contract on his head) because he fled away from "their witchcraft" control.¹²⁶

She claims when he was six years old, his parents sent him to Switzerland to study under Rabbinical and Cabalistic (Jewish mysticisms) teachers in an “exclusive boarding school.” According to Brown, Yoder continued his schooling there until age 19 and later completed graduate studies in Switzerland. ¹²⁷

Reminiscent of Elaine’s tall tales of ritualistic abuse, Yoder also speaks of descriptions of unrestrained torture and abuse by the Cabalists “through his years at school.” Upon his arrival at the boarding school, young Daniel was taken into the “subterranean levels” of the institution and “placed in a small windowless room” where he was kept as a prisoner. Following a failed escape attempt, Yoder found himself in a “small round room, just a few feet in diameter.” Here the evil rabbis “removed the lid from the top [of the chamber], and dumped thousands of spiders down on top of him, many of them poisonous.”¹²⁸

As the spiders began to crawl over and bite him, Yoder cried out in anguish. “Immediately, a brilliant shaft of light pierced down through that building, down into the cold little room where Daniel was cowering, shivering and crying on the floor,” Brown writes. Two arms reached forth from the light and cradled the child as he “slept in the arms of Jesus. ” “When he awoke, all of his spider bites were healed, ” Brown writes. ¹²⁹

Brown ’s account says that after completing his schooling, Yoder inherited a fortune, quickly rose to power in his grandfather’ s business, then his family ’s business, and finally formed corporations of his own. “Wealth became a play toy; power was his god,” Brown writes. At thirty years of age, Yoder’s parents ordered him into a “forced marriage” with a woman named Kai, claiming the wedlock would “further the family fortune.” According to Brown, Kai, too, had been, “terribly abused because of being raised in Cabalism.” ¹³⁰

Following their marriage, Kai “found Jesus Christ and gladly accepted Him as her Lord and Messiah.” Because of her conversion to Christianity, the couple ’s families had “hired men to capture them and to force Kai to renounce Christ or kill her.” For three months they eluded capture, but “in God ’s permissive will ” they were finally abducted. Brown writes, “They were flown to Israel where Daniel was chained to a wall and forced to watch as Kai, his first and only love, was tortured to death!”¹³¹

Yoder then allegedly “fled to the United States where he hid in a cabin in the mountains and studied Kai ’s Bible for a whole year.” As a result, he accepted Jesus Christ and left his family and wealth. On Nov. 10, 1989, he met Brown and just a month later they were married. Shortly afterwards, they moved to Lake Park, in northwestern Iowa.

Author’s Note:

I must say, this is a better story than her witchcraft friend Elaine. I bet this one will sell even better than the other lies!

FROM BANKER TO NEUROSURGEON

“From the very start, I knew something wasn’t just quite right with the couple,” Dickinson County Sheriff Greg Baloun told PFO. Baloun was the Lake Park Chief of Police in 1990 when Brown and Yoder arrived in Iowa. ““He passed himself off, the first time I met him, as a [semi retired, well-to-do] neurosurgeon. He never passed himself off as a minister to me. He was always a doctor,”” Baloun said. Baloun added that Yoder said ““his father was a doctor,” not a very wealthy international banker.”¹³²

Baloun says Yoder told him how he had to expeditiously travel from California to Nevada to do a delicate medical operation. “He told me how he had this Chrysler Cordova that would do 200 miles an hour and that he ran from California into Nevada to do a special surgery in a mere amount of time,” Baloun recalled. When asked why stops for gas didn’t impede his record pace, Yoder said, “I had a customized 40-gallon gas tank.”

“He had an answer for everything,”” Baloun said. ““He was a big talker, but you could catch him in lies all the time. ”¹³³

Lorraine Bush, a local real estate agent who handled the couple’s lease agreement on a two-story home in Lake Park, agreed with Baloun’s evaluation. ““I was suspicious of him right away,”” she told the local newspaper. ¹³⁴

Following a six-month stay in Lake Park, Brown and Yoder moved to Estherville, a town 25 miles to the northeast. They remained there briefly, then moved to Spencer, where Yoder became associated with a nondenominational fellowship, the Wells of Living Grace Church.

LEGAL WOES ALWAYS SEEM TO FOLLOW

Baloun's suspicions eventually extended to other law enforcement departments. An investigation into Yoder began in November 1990 by several agencies, including the Emmet County (Iowa) Sheriff's Office, the U.S. Office of the Inspector General and the Iowa State Patrol. The investigation ultimately revealed that Yoder also went by such names as William Joseph Stewart and Tony Michael Griffin and had used different Social Security numbers and birth dates.¹³⁵

As the investigation intensified, Yoder left Iowa and returned to Phoenix where, as a result of the persistent detective efforts of Iowa State Patrol Officer Marv Loebach, he was arrested on July 29, 1991. Yoder was charged with falsifying motor vehicle registrations and driver's licenses, and falsifying Social Security records by allegedly using the Social Security number of a dead man.¹³⁶

On Sept. 6, 1991, he was extradited to Iowa. The next day, he was indicted on two counts of perjury. Authorities learned that he had a criminal record and had served time in Minnesota and Missouri and admitted to receiving "psychological evaluations, counseling, or hospitalizations."¹²

Yoder was released on Sept. 9 after D&R Bonding Agency of Spirit Lake posted a bail bond of $10,000.¹³ Six weeks later the charges were rephrased into three counts, the first being perjury and the second and third being designated as fraudulent practice in the third degree.¹⁴ On Nov. 12, Yoder entered a written arraignment and plea of not guilty to all three charges.¹⁵

ON THE FENCE REVELATIONS

As the prosecution sought more information from Yoder, it received a stream of misstatements and conflicting information. In an Application and Order to Amend court document it was noted: “That Defendant ’s charged name herein be amended from Daniel Michael Yoder to the Defendant ’s true and correct name William Joseph Stewart.”¹⁶ Beyond his aliases, various other court documents revealed contradictory birth dates, occupations (such as pastor and bookstore manager) and Social Security numbers.¹⁷

However, one fact gathered by the prosecution from Yoder, that remained consistent throughout, was that he had only “completed seven years of school.”¹⁸

NEGOTIATING A “GUILTY” PLEA

In spring 1992, following recommendations made by the Dickinson County Attorney, Yoder opted for a “bargained plea” and “voluntarily” entered a “plea of guilty.” The county attorney had recommended to the court the following sentence and disposition: “(1) Fine of $2,000.00 plus a 30 percent surcharge. (2) Court costs to be taxed to the defendant. (3) Dismiss Counts I and III.”¹⁹ On April 29, 1992, Yoder entered a guilty plea on Count II of the indictments. The court document signed by Yoder stated in part: ““I hereby enter my PLEA OF GUILTY TO Fraudulent Practice in the Third Degree, an aggravated misdemeanor, in violation of Section 321.97 and 714.11(3) of the Code of Iowa, which crime was committed by me on April 4, 1991, as charged in said information.”¹³⁷

Based on Yoder ’s guilty plea, “the judgment of the Court”” stated “that the Defendant be and he is sentenced to pay a fine of $1,976.92, a surcharge of $593.08 and court costs of $60.00.”¹³⁸ The fine, surcharge and court costs were ordered by the court to be paid within two days. Yoder complied and the case was closed.²²

The couple left Iowa and Brown resumed compiling her story of purported battles with the demonic. They currently live in Clinton, Ark., and have altered the name of their ministry from “Wells of Living Grace” to “Wells of Joy.”

FALSE “PROFITS”

Paul, through the leading of the Holy Spirit, has been quiet vocal on the subject of false teachers. We find many more instances in the Bible where he has spoken of the dangers of false teachers. Here is another example:

(2 Cor. 11:3-4) "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. {4} For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

Paul says that he fears what the Christians in Corinth might do if a false teacher comes preaching things other than what he has preached to them ... he fears they "might well bear with him". He was afraid they might be led astray and continue in the erroneous doctrine. Some number of verses later, Paul, has more to say about false teachers:

(2 Cor. 11:13-15), "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. {14} And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. {15} Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

Paul says, "false apostles", or according to the original Greek words, he calls them spurious apostles or pretended preachers. He says these false apostles are disguising themselves as apostles of Christ! They are disguising themselves as ministers of God! In fact, Paul says not to be surprised because Satan himself is disguised as an angel of light so it is no great thing if "his (Satan's) ministers" also be disguised as "ministers of righteousness". Remember, we have already seen that Satan has placed wolves among us in sheep's clothing. Satan has placed his own in clever disguises, as ministers of God, in order to destroy God's people. This is why Paul throughout scripture keeps showing so great concern for warning God's people of false teachers. They are by no means harmless!

Let me now leave you with a handful of other scriptures that deal with false teachers.

(Gal. 1:6-12) ,"I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: {7} Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. {8} But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. {9} As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. {10} For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. {11} But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. {12} For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ."

These are strong words. Paul says that if even he or an angel from heaven preach some other doctrine, "let him be accursed". Paul says that the doctrine he preached wasn't from man, but from Jesus Christ. Furthermore he says he didn't seek to please men, for had he, he couldn't be the servant of Christ. It is impossible to do both. God is greatly displeased with anyone who alters his Word, even in the least. Here are some other examples:

(Rev. 22:18-19), "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: {19} And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book."

(Deut. 4:1-4), "Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you. {2} Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. {3} Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baalpeor: for all the men that followed Baalpeor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you. {4} But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day."

(Prov. 30:5-6) "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. {6} Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

(2 Pet. 1:20-2:3 KJV) "Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. {21} For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. {1} But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily (original Greek word means "introduce surreptitiously", i.e., introduce by stealth) shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. {2} And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. {3} And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not."

Aren't false teachers today "denying the Lord that bought them"? Jesus paid for our redemption with his own blood and yet they are denying his power. God's daily intervention in our lives has been minimized, down played, and replaced with reliance upon man for protection, healing, and finances.

(Matt. 24:11), "And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many."
(Matthew 24:24), "For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

(Titus 1:9-14), "Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. {10} For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: {11} Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's (original Greek word means "gain [pecuniary or general]" sake. {12} One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. {13} This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound (original Greek word means "uncorrupt [true in doctrine]") in the faith; {14} Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

In (Tit. 1:10), notice when Paul says "there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers", he says, "specially they of the circumcision". Back at that time, the circumcised were considered the true and chosen people of God. Yet, Paul calling them deceivers, says they need to be silenced because they were teaching things they shouldn't for the sake of money. He commands for them to be rebuked so that they might become true in doctrine.

(Eph. 4:11-16 KJV) "And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; {12} For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: {13} Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: {14} That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; {15} But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: {16} From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love."

(2 Tim. 3:1-9, 13-17) "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. {2} For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, {3} Without natural affection, truce breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, {4} Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; {5} Having a form (original Greek word means "appearance") of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. {6} For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, {7} Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. {8} Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith. {9} But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was... {13} But evil men and seducers (original Greek word means "impostors") shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived. {14} But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; {15} And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. {16} All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: {17} That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

Notice in verse 5 that we are commanded to turn away from those that appear Godly but deny the power of God. Unfortunately, today most of the church world is of this sort. The majority are Christian in name but are without true faith in God. Many claim to have faith in God, but their actions speak otherwise. Continuing on through verse 13, we are warned that false teachers will be getting worse and worse in the last days. Nevertheless, we are encouraged to continue in the truth (the "holy scriptures"), which is able to make us "wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus". On the other hand, false doctrine will prevent us from being wise unto salvation if we follow it. We are told that all of scripture is from God "and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." It is the scriptures that are profitable for doctrine, instruction, and whatever else is necessary to make the believer complete. The doctrines, opinions, and distortions of man will not make us complete and will not get us to heaven. The Bible, which is God's true word (verse 16), is what is essential in our lives and is what will make us "wise unto salvation". The Bible, as it was written, is one of the tools necessary for us to get to heaven.

It is not my goal, or my personality, to bash ministers. However, false teachers and false doctrine are common and very real, and it is a reality that we must be aware of. Throughout the Bible, God has forewarned us of false teachers and doctrinal error. It is a subtlety used by Satan to destroy God's people and to prevent people from being REAL Christians. Do not be fooled by the clever disguises and righteous outward appearance of false teachers. Those who you look up to with the greatest respect could be wolves in sheep's clothing. If what they teach doesn't completely line up with the Bible or if they omit, ignore or change scriptures, they are a false teacher! Test everything you hear against the standard that will never fail -- the Bible. It is Satan's goal to steal heaven away from us. DO NOT place something as important as your salvation in the hands of someone else, but be cautious. Again, DO NOT be deceived by false teachers, but study the Bible for yourself, making sure what you hear is the truth.

I believe that occultists are now infiltrating many churches. However, also remember when Christian ministers could see when unbelievers were present. They could see by the anointing and the Spirit of God. Today, many churches have joined the spirit of the world to the degree, they can no longer see by the Spirit of God!.

THE FOLLOWING ARE LETTERS SENT TO A WEB SITE CALLED DEMONBUSTERS <http://www.demonbusters.com> CONCERNING REACTIONS TO REBECCA BROWN'S BOOKS

"I found your site while researching Rebecca Brown. I read her book Captive when I was a new Christian . . . that was almost six years ago and it did confuse me greatly. I am writing because I hope more people will see this and NOT buy her books.

It is the most depressing and discouraging books I've ever read on a walk with God. It makes the enemy look more powerful than Who we have in us. I am afraid she may be somewhat of a role model to some young impressionable babe in Christ. I fortunately was raised in the Word and in my spirit knew that it was off in a lot of ways, but a new believer may begin to think it's healthy to not sleep or that it's ok to say "Yes God is going to let me be killed for His glory." It may be some day but not today! The way they call the Lord simply "father" makes my skin crawl . . . yes their father all right, father of lies.

I don't know what made me suddenly get the urge to look them up but . . . I did and your MP3's really helped me, thank you. I had gotten involved in helping a young lady with sexual abuse in her past come to the Lord and help her. I became her friend and allowed her to live with my two daughters and me. All hell broke loose . . . for three months (almost) she lived here and she almost destroyed my oldest daughter's self esteem. It was almost like an abusive boyfriend had entered her life. The Lord told me one day (I couldn't see what was happening my daughter protected her and I wanted to help so much I lost sight of the truth and used little wisdom) "You need to let her GO! You've taken her as far as you can she doesn't want to change" Within days I left until she moved her stuff. Things are so much better now my two children are happier than ever and Jesus is supplying our every need, even providing a new best friend for my home schooled 13 years old. I prayed out her old room and closet (there was a bad feeling in there can't explain it but my other saved friends felt it too) prayed it out and now it's my room and we all three love it there! I feel your site helped me open my eyes (God thru your site I should say) Rebecca Brown encourages taking in strangers but she does say careful of this if you have children . . . I say NEVER let a stranger even if you knew them a while (I knew this girl for almost a year before she moved in) even with the best intentions.

The fact that Elaine and Rebecca were living the way they did and seemed to have no other life than each other bugged me when I read the book the first time . . . after hearing the MP3's I saw that the girl that moved in here was trying to take the place of the man of the house . . . in turn a weird well you know. She was a goat among sheep and I feel this is what drew me to find out about people like her...it just happened to come from your site via Rebecca Brown (an example) I know this was long and maybe confusing but I wanted to thank you. Have a blessed week."

In August, 1998 we received a call from a person who said their life started to nose dive AFTER having Rebecca Brown pray for them. This is not the first time we have heard of these things.

Another email on October 23, 2002:

"I burned "He Came to Set the Captives Free" . . . I feel great. My wife wanted to read it a little. I replied I want to burn it-I told her only if she prays about it first. It took about a minute-her response was God specifically told her it is an abomination and these people linked to this do not know Me or My Kingdom. She immediately said burn it."

I received the following from an incoming email on September 1, 1998:

"I believe that Rebecca is a witch also.

Someone gave me a tape where Rebecca and her husband, (Yoder) whom she claims to be a member of the Rothschild family (ha ha) I don't believe that one. They were speaking at the 1998 FGBMFI DECATUR REGIONAL CONVENTION. She says many bizarre things on this tape and says that she's got a new book out. I just thought that you might want to know that she is back out there deceiving Christians once again. These tapes may be ordered from Bob and Jan Miller Company, PO Box 713, Springfield Ill. 62705, 800/293-7696. I only got one from a friend of her ministering to the women there. It's strange as all get out."

We received this email on June 8, 1999:

"What can you tell me about Rebecca Brown? I had an encounter with her several years ago as a young pastor. I read one of the books she wrote, and now I think I have become fodder for one of her demon deliverance stories. I pastored a church near Washington, DC that had come under demonic attack. After I asked for her help, it seemed to get worse-I don't know."

We received this email on September 19, 1999:

"It seems these sexual attacks came after reading Rebecca Brown's book."

We received this email October 26, 1999:

"Dear Sir,

Please can you tell me where else on the website I can find more information on Rebecca Brown. A member of our church read her first book. he had a spirit of fear came on him and requested prayer. he lives on his own. I was daft enough to buy all four of her books without reading the first one beforehand. I felt a terrible oppression and when I read out loud some of the things she wrote. It made my husband feel oppressed and certainly the atmosphere. At the introduction she claims the devil does not want anyone to finish the book, so like a mug I plodded on and finished it, but I did not feel it was anointed of GOD, far from it. I do not recall her ever mentioning the HOLY SPIRIT. What does worry me is my Pastor seems impressed and has been taken in by her. My husband and I have told us what we feel. My cousins who are members of the Toronto Airport Church came over from Canada in June for a week and would not even open any of her books and told us to burn them. Someone else has borrowed them and could not finish the first book and brought it back, he still has the other three, however, I decided to burn the first one 'He came to set the captives free, which has a picture of a hand coming out of hell and a sword coming down out of heaven, I felt uneasy just looking. However, since deciding to burn it, would you believe I cannot find the book anywhere! It is as if it has mysteriously grown legs and walked ran scared! I do not mean to slander Rebecca, as I have never met her, but if I could I would tell her, her books are not anointed by GOD, other books I have read on deliverance bring victory and lift your Spirit. Her book just made me feel exhausted, sucked the life out of me and gave me a very bad headache. Greater is JESUS in me and His precious blood than the demons in her book. Amen

And yes we did pray for cleansing of anything that may have infiltrated itself into our home or any effect on us. We prayed GOD would renew a right spirit within us and deliver us by the precious blood of JESUS from anything that is not of JESUS."

We received the following email on June 5, 2000:

"I SPOKE WITH ONE OF MY CLASSMATES AT SCHOOL WHO SAID HER MOTHER HAD READ THE BOOK AND HER SON SAW THE BOOK COVER AND IT HAUNTED HIM FOR YEARS. AND HER MOTHER PUT OIL AROUND HER HOUSE AND PRAYED BUT IT DIDN'T STOP. SO SHE BURNT IT AND IT STOPPED."

We received the following email on July 4, 2000:

"We read three of Rebecca Brown's books, and my husband said he could not figure out what it was, but something did not feel right. Our poor little kitty was found cowering under the couch one night when we came home from church, and we had several strange things occur at the time the books were in our house, such as doors opening, and the cat being scared. Thanks so much for the information."

We received the following email on August 8, 2000:

"This is very interesting - and it is also interesting that I came across your website in the midst of seeking God for true deliverance. I have read Rebecca's books and always thought that they were wonderful, insightful, and powerful. But, after reading others' comments, I can see where there was an increase in supernatural activity in my life upon reading those books. I can also remember the fear that I was opened up to and a strange awareness of the dark side of the supernatural realm. I would like to know more about those tapes and the information you have on her. A fellow minister friend of mine, who happens to be related to me, told me that upon hearing of her books he immediately thought that she was involved in Satanism and that one of the youths in his church read it and began demonized afterwards. This is really deep. W/B soon."

We received the following email on September 1, 2000:

"I would like to add the comments on Rebecca Brown. 1. God's plan is NEVER for us to have fear. Never are we to fear the enemy. It was never in Gods' divine plan. The enemy has to bow to the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. 2. We must never let our focus be shifted from the Face of Lord Jesus. Not even for a split second. We cannot give ground to the enemy. While reading Rebecca Browns' books, I became increasingly aware of the enemy. That is what he wanted. It was NOT what God wanted. 3. My mom opposed the books. She was right to feel that way. Our house was broken into TWICE after reading the books. The one book was still our my house when they broke in. My mom even told me when I brought the book, 'Unbroken Curses', home that I was bringing curses into our house. Makes perfect sense. My mom has an understanding of the basic fundamentals of Christianity. Quite honestly, if she did not agree with it from the start, there must have been a stirring from the Holy Spirit. 4. There was always a heaviness when the books were present in our house. Once I had returned them to their owner, the heaviness lifted and we could actually sit around the table at dinner time and have a pleasant, civil conversation with each other. 5. Consequently, the owner of the books was very often ill with the flu. Her husband also became very ill. He was so ill (and is still possibly ill) with a heart condition. I don't know if all these facts have any thing in common? But they are alarmingly closely linked? I was not aware of her alias, and her position (present or past) in the occult. Had I known her involvement I would have restrained completely from her publications. I don't get it though, why does she seem so 'genuine' about getting people out of the occult, yet she may possibly have links into the occult?"

The following message was received October 5, 2000:

"AFTER READING REBECCA BROWN'S BOOKS, I GREW AN UNHEALTHY FASCINATION WITH THE OCCULT. I AM SORRY NOW THAT I COULDN'T SEE IT ALL BEFORE. HER EFFORT TO GIVE GRAPHIC SATANIC DETAILS, LEAVES ONE SCARED AND WITH MORE OF AN AWARENESS OF SATAN THEN OF GOD'S PRESENCE."

We received the following email on July 18, 2001 from another Deliverance minister:

"Rebecca Brown--- Last year I got under a tremendous attack. It felt like a stake had been pushed into my back on both sides, like a giant hot iron sword was burning through me. I usually fight everything off my self but I had to get other people to pray. I could not get any relief. After warring the thing for about three days, I couldn't sleep, I rolled in the bed in great pain . . . Playing the Word of God over me for days and nights, the Lord Jesus spoke to me. "Do you want to know what is wrong with you?"

He said it's the book by the side of your bed. It was Rebecca Brown's third book about "vessels of honor," I picked the book up and it opened to a page where she was describing a witchcraft technique of something she called push pins. She said that the witches use acid and push pins to attack people . . . etc . . . Interestingly, that's exactly what it felt like, pins in my back that were going through to the front of my body. It felt like acid was burning me. I threw the book out of the house and took authority in the name of Jesus. I was healed immediately.

You may wonder why her book was in my home. As you know, I have written a book exposing her some years back. A woman came to the church and gave me her third book. I took the book home and placed it by my bed but never got time to read it. Besides, I had enough from her first two books. Anyway, as a writer and deliverance ministry, I can tell you from my research, and now my personal experience, those books have Satan's supernatural power.

We received the following email on March 6, 2002 from an Ex Satanist:

"I was just cruising around your page and listening to the two tapes on Rebecca Brown. I'm an Ex Satanist (although not to the level Elaine claims to have been). When I first became a Christian (five years ago) it was recommended that I buy Rebecca's two books . . . He came to set the captives free and prepare for war which I did. I went through a lot of warfare when I became a Christian however I can't blame the books for that - coming from the background I did it was to be expected. What I heard on the tapes is completely viable. I know of a man who maintained his position as a pastor of a Christian church until the day he died of a sudden heart attack. He was a Satanist. It's sad to see of the deception going on around us. I watched Rebecca Brown being an interview on television one day, and something struck me as odd about the interview. Nothing she said but more of what I sensed from her. Although she behaved fine, what I picked up from her was a lack of emotion and a deep hidden fear. I wondered at the time why I would be sensing that from her when those are usually symptoms of people that are involved in the occult or coming out of it. I didn't think much more of it until I was listening to the tapes and it came back to memory. Knowing a little more now than I did then, I would like to reread Rebecca's books and compare them to scripture sometime. I lean intensely towards believing that Rebecca and Elaine are working for Satan, (not just as a result of this information but other sources of information as well)."

If Rebecca Brown is now truly Saved, I am willing to put here a short testimony from her confessing that she was in fact still involved with the occult when she wrote her first book, and maybe later.

After writing to Jack Chick Publications, I received the following statement from Jack Chick on August 25, 2000:

"Rebecca is the only one who worked here with us in our office. Elaine did come in with her on occasion. I can only tell you that while Rebecca worked in our office, I neither saw or heard anything about her still being involved in the occult. I heard her many times on the telephone counseling with people who were involved in the occult and needed help. What she did on her own personal time I do not know, but I saw no outward evidence of the occult while she worked for us." Your next question was "Did they damage Chick Publications?" The answer is "No." I felt the Lord wanted me to print her first two books. I did that and her books became some of our best sellers. At a later date, she asked me to print her third book (I don't even remember the name of it now) but I did not feel led to do so. About that same time, she married (her last name is Yoder now), moved away and found another publisher for her new book. She then decided to place all of her books with the same publisher (Whitaker House in PA) and we simply gave her all of the negatives to the books we published and let her do what she wanted with them. We parted friends and I have spoken with her maybe two or three times since then. She says she is attending conferences, doing speaking engagements and selling her books. That is all I know."

Bibliography A Superior Court of California document No: VCV 009038, Petition for Change of Name and a Continue Order to Show Cause. These document the application and granting of the petition by Ruth Irene Bailey to legally change her name to Rebecca Brown back in April, 1986.

All the details check out. The Petitioner was born in Shelbyville, Indiana. Her reasons for requesting the name change is because she has, "become more by the proposed name through use as a pen name and use of the name in ministry than her present name.

A "Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law & Order" document labeled. "Before The Medical Licensing Board of Indiana, Cause No. 83 MLB 038 in the matter of Ruth Bailey, M.D., Respondent.

This documents the revoking of Dr. Bailey's license to practice medicine in the State of Indiana.

Most interesting are the findings of fact which I will be repeating below.

An article "Drugs, Demons & Delusions, The 'Amazing' Saga of Rebecca and Elaine" by G. Richard Fisher, Paul R. Blizard and M. Kurt Goedelman from The Quarterly Journal of Personal Freedom Outreach. Vol. 9, No. 4, October-December 1989. Editor: Keith A. Morse.

Four Newspaper articles as Follows:

"Doctor Accused of Using Drugs to Treat 'Demons'" by Gerry LaFollette from the Indianapolis News, March 16, 1984.

"'Demons vs. Demerol' Doctor Will Get Pre-Hearing Exam" by Jane Stegemiller from the Indianapolis News, May 18, 1984.

"Excessive drug prescription, State board revokes doctor's license" from the Indianapolis Star, September 21, 1984.

"Physician's Bizarre Behavior Related" by Jane Stegemiller from the Indianapolis News, September 21, 1984.

ft notes

1. Mary Baker Eddy, founder of Christian Science, 'Science And Health',
2. Breaking Bondages, Freedom in Christ Ministries Trust. P. 01. Box 436, Drummonyne, N.S.W., 2047, Australia.
3. Prudence Jones and Caitlin Matthews, eds. Voices from the Circle: The Heritage of Western Paganism (Wellingbrough, England; Aquarian Press, 1990, 12-14.
4. 1966, Aton LeVey began the first American Church Of Satan.
5. Orestes Brownson ([????] 2004: 116)
6. (from Adam Clarke's Commentary, Electronic Database. Copyright © 1996, 2003 by Biblesoft, Inc. All rights reserved).
7. Cavandish, The Black Arts; Witchcraft, New York, G. P. Putnam & Sons, p. 67.
8. Twilah Fox, M.D. Spiritual Realities of Good and Evil, Florida Christian Doctors meeting in Tampa, Florida, 10/4/90.
9. Holliday, Pat. "Be Free," 9252 San Jose Blvd., 2804, Jacksonville, Florida, 32257.
10. ibid, Holliday, Pat. "Be Free,"
11. "Deceit," Webster's New World Dictionary. New York: Simon and Schuster, 1984, pg. 365.
12. W.E. Vine, The Expanded Vines Expository Dictionary of New Testament Words. Minneapolis: Bethany House Publishers, 1984, pp. 270-271.
13. Rebecca Brown, and Elaine Moses, Closet Witches, cassettes, Chick Publishers

14. Rebecca Brown, and Elaine Moses, Closet Witches, Chick Publishers
15. Rebecca Brown, M.D. Prepare For War, Chick, Publications, P.O. Box 662, Chino Ca., 91710, pp. 15.
16. ibid., Closet Witches, Chick Publishers
17. Ibid., Rebecca Brown, M.D. Prepare For War p. 60-61.
18. Ibid., p. 62-63.
19. ibid. Rebecca ... He Came --- pg. 56.
20. ibid
21. ibid
22. ibid
23. ibid
24. ibid
25. Ibid., p. 73.
26. Ibid., p. 73-74.
27. ibid
28. Ibid., p. 91.
29. Ibid., p. 97.
30. Ibid., p. 101-102.
31. Ibid., p. 103.
32. Ibid., p. 228.
33. ibid
34. ibid
35. ibid
36. ibid
37. ibid
38. ibid
39. ibid., FREE FROM DEMONS., Pat Holliday, www.agapepublishers.com

40. The Witchdoctor and the Man, Fourth Generation Witchdoctor Finds Christ, Bishop Vagalas Kanco and Pat Holliday, www.agapepublishers.com
41. ibid., 114-117
42. ibid.
43. ibid
44. ibid
45. ibid
46. ibid
47. (from Adam Clarke's Commentary, Electronic Database. Copyright © 1996, 2003 by Biblesoft, Inc. All rights reserved.)
48. ibid, Rebecca Brown, page 222
49. Prepare Ye For War. She says on page 55 -57-58
50. Cited, Rebecca Brown, (Modern Catholic Dictionary)" page 250.
51. ibid
52. ibid
53. Out on a Limb, the TV mini-series by the same name which was aired on January 18 and 19, 1987."
54. ibid., Out on a Limb, TV mini-series
55. ibid
56. Out on a Limb, and demonstrated it very well as in the TV mini-series by the same name which was aired on January 18 and 19, 1987."
57. (Out On A Limb, p. 329). Shirley McClaine
58. ibid
59. ibid
60. " (Out On A Limb, p. 329).
61. William T. Ellis, Billy Sunday, The Man and His Message, (Moody Press, p.49.
62. ibid
63. page 235,
64. Brown, Prepare Ye for War, Chick Publications, P.O. Box 662, Chino Ca., 91710, pp.15.

65. ibid., 14
66. ibid, page 15,
67. ibid., 16
68. ibid., page 15,
69. ibid
70. ibid., 18
71. The Endtimes, Jan/Feb. 2002
72. ibid., 180 and 181
73. ibid
74. ibid., 28
75. ibid., Joseph R. Chambers, D.D.
76. ibid
77. The End Times, Jan/Feb. 2002, Joseph Chambers, N. Carolina
78. Defeated Enemies, Corrie Ten Boom, Christian Literature Crusade, Fort Washington, Pennsylvania, 19034, pg. 6.
79. Josh McDowell and Don Stewart's book, Understanding the Occult, Campus Crusade for Christ, Published by Here's life Publishers Inc San Bernadinao, Claifornia 924, p. 175.
80. "Becoming A Vessel of Honor In The Master's Service", chapter 6 pg 103.
81. ibid., Vessels...
82. "Becoming A Vessel of Honor In The Master's Service," chapter 6 pg 103.
83. ibid
84. ibid
85. "Becoming A Vessel of Honor In The Master's Service"
86. Sources: Slain in Spirit, fact or fiction, Ezra Coppin, New Leaf Press P.O. Box 311, Green Forest, Ar 72638; Early Revivals, Dr. Pat Holliday.
87. In Chapter 6, pg 101-102,
88. Sign, Wonders and Reactions, Pat Holliday, Ph.D., 9252 San Jose Blvd., 2804, Jacksonville, Fl. 32257, pg. 4.
89. Layman's Bible Encyclopedia, Cleveland Tenn. Pg `95

90. Ibid
91. The Quarterly Journal Keith A. Morse, Personal Freedom Outreach, P. O. Box 26062, St. Louis, Mo. 63136; October-December 1989, Vol 9, No. 4. —Quoting Superior Court of California, County of San Barnardino, County Clerk Document, number VCV 009038.
92. ibid. Quarterly Journal Keith A. Morse, Personal Freedom Outreach,
93. Cit op. Captives, pg. 8
94. Cit. Op. Application for License
95. Letter from India. University School at Medicine to Ball Memorial Hospital, Muncie, Ind., July 9, 1979.
96. Ball Memorial Hospital, Muncie, In., July 9, 1979
97. ibid., Captives
98. Indianapolis News, Sept 21, 1984, p.5.
99. Interview with Detective Samuel E. Hanes and Captian Tim R. Davis Madison County, Ind., Police, June 19809, tape on file.
100. Find of Fact, No. 11 Ruth Bailey, M.D. Before Medical Licencing Board of Indian.
101. Quarterly, cit op. Finding of Fact. No Cause # 83.
102. ibid
103. Chesterfield Lives - Spiritualist Camp 1886-1986 Our First 100 Years, self-published, 1986.
104. New Castle High School Yearbook, 1965, pg. 51 New Castle, Inc.
105. Application for Marriage License, State of Indiana, Henry Country, Book 54, pg. 586.
106. Closet Witches I, & Captives Free
107. ibid., Quarterly
108. ibid
109. Ball Hospital as Dr. Brown to leave
110. (State of Indiana, Madison Country Records, book 619, Pages 216 and 740).
111. Case Complaint Report, Madison County, Ind., Police,# 83- K-4001. States Exhibit # 22. Op. Cit.
112. Captives, pp. 62-63
113. Official Copy of Certificate of Death, # 08291, Lois M.Bailey.

114. State's Exhibit # 22, "In-Patient Admissions," and "History and Physical" reports for Moses, Edna E. Ball Memorial Hospital, Medical Record No. 89477. States Exhibit # 16, St. John's Meical Center, Anderson, Ind., Chronology, Dr.. Ruth Bailey, pp. 1
115. Samuel E. Hanna of the Madison County (Indiana) Police Department received a phone call from a social worker at St. Vincent's Hospital in Indianapolis.
116. Indiana Medical Licensing Board issued an "Emergency Suspension" Of Rebecca's License, Affidavits of pharmacists, from Marsh Pharmacy, Anderson, Ind; Holton's Drugs, Anderson; Lapel Drug Store, Lapel, Ind; and Gene Maddy Drugs, Anderson.
117. Emergency Suspension in the Matter of Ruth Bailey, M.D. License no 29402 received Mar. March 15, 1984.
118. 13. Indianapolis News, Sept. 21, 1984, p. 1.
119. Ibid., p. 1 and p. 5.
120. 15. Ibid., p. 5.
121. Ibid.
122. The Quarterly Journal, Personal Freedom Outreach, Oct.-Dec. 1989, p. 13.
123. Cit. Op. The Quarterly Journal
124. 2 Indianapolis News, Sept 21, 1984, pg. 1.
125. Unbroken Curses. Rebecca (Brown) Yoder and Michael Yoder.
126. Brown, speaking at S. E. Full Gospel Businessmen's meeting.
127. Southeastern Full Gospel Businessmen meeting, Atlanta Ga.
128. ibid., Brown-Yoder, Unbroken....
129. ibid., Brown-Yoder
130. ibid., Brown-Yoder
131. ibid
132. Dickinson County Sheriff Greg Baloun told PFO. Baloun was the Lake Park Chief of Police in 1990
133. ibid. Dickerson
134. Lorraine Bush, a local real estate agent, Lake Park
135. the Emmet County (Iowa) Sheriff's Office, the U.S. Office of the Inspector General and the Iowa State Patrol
136. Iowa State Patrol Officer Marv Loebach
137. Dickinson County Attorney

138. ibid